

SUMNER TUCKER PIKE, of the Class of 1913, of Lubec and Washington; Overseer of the College, member of the Securities and Exchange Commission, transferring from the field of practical trading in securities as Vice President of Case, Pomeroy and Company to the theoretical and more difficult business of regulating such trading; open-minded and liberal official who has the courage to speak his mind in good Yankee fashion and to act in accordance with the dictates of his conscience; recognized by his College which has no politics but which acclaims honest public service.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS