

EVERETT PARKER POPE, Major, U.S. Marines, of the Class of 1941, little realizing that his degree magna cum laude and his fine undergraduate career as scholar and athlete were but preludes to the outstanding service he rendered in the war, where his courage far beyond the line of duty won for him the country's highest military distinction, the Congressional Medal of Honor, the third man in Bowdoin's long history to gain that award; representative today of the 2,676 Bowdoin men living and dead who have served their country in the war, on land, on sea and in the air, on every ocean and on every continent, every one of whom is worthy of all the honor the College can bestow, and of all the gratitude American people can express, gratitude that should lead to the high resolve that this shall not happen again; soldier and scholar.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS