

EDWIN ARLINGTON ROBINSON, leading American poet; son of Maine, brought up by the shores of the lovely Kennebec; recognized at home and abroad as without a living peer in his own special field of verse; gladly welcomed by the oldest college of his native State into the goodly company of her poets and authors.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS