

FRANCIS BOWES SAYRE, a graduate of Williams, now special Assistant in the Department of State, UNRA, our last High Commissioner to the Philippines whose escape from Corregidor in a submarine is one of our national sagas, through whom today we salute the Filipino people who have made such a brave struggle for freedom; brilliant advocate of international coöperation and of a Christian peace, statesman who from Siam and the Far East to Washington has always held aloft the banner of liberty.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
