

GEORGE BOWMAN SEARS, of the Class of 1890; Bachelor of Laws of Boston University; for thirty years Justice of the most important District Court of Essex County, Massachusetts; captain of the first Bowdoin varsity football team, who brings in his court the principles of fair play; loyal representative of a class to whom Bowdoin owes much; conscientious and public-spirited citizen of Salem, whose character and career are an inspiration to younger men.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS