

HAROLD MARSH SEWALL, graduate of Harvard, Consul General at Samoa from 1887 to 1892, where with foresight and energy he opposed German pretensions; minister to Hawaii; during the war the patriotic chairman of the Maine Committee of Public Safety; father of two sons who served gallantly in the war; zealous and loyal citizen.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS