

OLIVER DANA SEWALL, of the Class of 1887; graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregationalist Conference and Missionary Society, beginning his ministry with the devoted Maine band of 1892 under the immediate inspiration of President Hyde; for nine years pastor of important Congregational Churches in New England; Trustee of Andover Theological Seminary and of the American International College at Springfield, thus uniting in his work and in his service the cause of religion and education; excellent preacher and able administrator, modest and sincere in all his dealings.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF DIVINITY