

SUMNER SEWALL, Governor of Maine; distinguished Ace in the first World War, decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross, the Legion of Honor, and Croix de Guerre; chief executive of that State which, in the words of the poet Horace, “smiles at us beyond all others,” by family and character the best that Maine produces, now in the last months of a brilliant administration in which he displayed leadership of a high quality; courageous advocate of international cooperation and insisting in season and out of season that this nation must play its proper part in world affairs; honest, industrious public servant, gladly honored by a College which is ever conscious of its debt to the State of Maine.

Honors Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
