

(In Absentia)

SHERMAN NELSON SHUMWAY, of the Class of 1917; in college a splendid leader of men; captain of the football team and of the student battalion; during the war promoted from private to lieutenant colonel, each promotion being won by ability and courage; fearless and inspiring commander devoted to his men; the youngest lieutenant colonel, and one of the most brilliant of the younger officers in the American Expeditionary Forces.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS