

NEWMAN SMYTH, of the Class of 1863; a son of one of the old Bowdoin's famous professors; lieutenant in the Civil War; for fifty-three years in the sacred ministry; for over twenty years influential Fellow of Yale University, helping to shape the policy of that famous institution; author and spiritual leader; recognized as one of the great men in the American church today.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF DIVINITY