

In recognition of the centennial year of the Class of 1825, the class of Hawthorne and Longfellow, I now create:

CHARLES WILBERT SNOW, of the Class of 1907; Longfellow scholar; Associate Professor of English at Wesleyan University; enthusiastic teacher of literature; poet of the Maine coast, which through his insight he is making his own; here today representative of the younger Bowdoin men in literature.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS
