

ALFRED GILMORE MORTON SOULE, of the Class of 1903, of Augusta; Chief of the Division of Inspection of the State Department of Agriculture; conscientious and capable state official whose advice for more than twenty-five years has been sought on all manner of questions from packing blueberries to canning beans; who is an advance guard in the protection of our Maine households against improper and adulterated food and whose experience is highly esteemed by federal experts; known in the world of sport as the father of the Soules; earnest Churchman; fine citizen, representing today that large and important body of members of the College who did not obtain their first degree but whose loyalty matches that of our graduates in course.

Honoris Causa, MASTER OF ARTS