

EDGAR CURTIS TAYLOR, of the Class of 1920, of St. Louis, Missouri; Master of Arts of Oxford University; teacher and principal, founding and conducting in the midwestern metropolis an admirable school, and in that community recognized as an active and progressive citizen; representing today not only his class but the large number of Bowdoin men who are teaching in our independently supported schools and academies, a vitally important division of our American system of education; bringing into a wide circle the ideals and classical background of Oxford and Bowdoin.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS
