

LEONARD PERCY DeWOLFE TILLEY, Premier of New Brunswick; son of a famous Canadian statesman, one of the founders of the Dominion of Canada, and of a gracious Canadian mother, both honored by their King for their services to Canada; graduate of the University of New Brunswick and of the Law School at Dalhousie; Doctor of Laws of the University of New Brunswick; Doctor of Civil Laws of Toronto University; gladly welcomed here as the present head of the government of a friendly and neighborly Province separated from us by the lovely St. Croix and St. John rivers, and by an unguarded boundary line, giving to his office distinction that comes from fine tradition, real culture, and able service.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
