

CHARLES CUTLER TORREY, of the Class of 1884; graduate of Andover Theological Seminary; Doctor of Philosophy from Strassburg University; Master of Arts of Yale; Doctor of Divinity of Bowdoin; Professor Emeritus of Semitic Languages of Yale University; Overseer of Bowdoin; one of the most distinguished Oriental scholars in the world, whose recent publications on the Aramaic versions of the Gospels mark a new and most important epoch in New Testament criticism; honored twice by his Alma Mater, today –

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LETTERS