

The Honorands of The 2003 Commencement

Raymond S. Troubh '50 Doctor of Laws

Raymond S. Troubh graduated from Bowdoin in 1950 and earned his law degree from Yale University in 1952. Early in his legal career he clerked for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Harold Hitz Burton, Bowdoin Class of 1909. From 1954 to 1958, he was an associate in the firm of Sullivan and Cromwell in New York. He was treasurer of the Lazard Fund (1958-60), associate with Lazard Freres & Co. (1961-68), and partner in that firm from 1968 to 1974. In 1974 he founded Troubh & Co., a financial consulting firm.

He is a former governor of the American Stock Exchange and has a long record of service on corporate boards. In November 2001 he was called upon to be a member of the board at Enron and to be one of three members investigating corporate misconduct at the company. He currently serves as interim board chair at Enron. Director's Alert named him one of nine Outstanding Directors in Corporate America 2002 "for lending a steady, cool, and honest hand to boardrooms across corporate America in times of turmoil, most particularly in guiding Enron through crisis."
