

HARRY TRUST, of the Class of 1916; honorary Doctor of Letters of the University of Maine; graduate of the Bangor Theological Seminary and now President, the first alumnus to serve in that post; the head of an institution with which three of Bowdoin's presidents have been associated as teacher and student; called to his present high office from an active ministry in Ohio where he occupied many important positions among them the president of the Ohio Pastors' Association; hard-working, scholarly administrator.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF DIVINITY