

WALLACE HUMPHREY WHITE, of the Class of 1899; Overseer of the College; since 1917 a member of Congress from the historic Second District of Maine; law maker of the radio; Chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine; effective champion of the cause of American shipping; in the Jones-White Bill carrying to splendid fruition the dreams and hopes of his distinguished Bowdoin grandfather, Senator Frye; rightly honored for this service by his College and his State that are seated by the sea, again associating the name of Bowdoin with maritime affairs, with sanely progressive legislation, and with fine public service.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS