

FRANK NATHANIEL WHITTIER, of the Class of 1885; Professor of Hygiene and Physical Training, and College Physician; a scientist who is recognized as the world's foremost expert on microscopic photography; a citizen who gives freely of his time to the many causes which his profession is called to further; a physician recognized as one of the leading medical men in the State of Maine; the friend of every Bowdoin student who has entered the College or the Medical School in the last forty years; a distinguished servant of Bowdoin who has worked with utter devotion tirelessly, unselfishly, and effectively in her behalf.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF SCIENCE