

SCOTT WILSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine; a graduate and now Trustee of Bates College, known to many a Bowdoin athlete as the crack second baseman of the Bates team; who beginning the practice of law in 1895 has progressed by successive and logical steps from Assistant County Attorney to the highest judicial office in the state; worthy successor of worthy predecessors in that illustrious line that runs from Prentiss Mellen to Leslie Colby Cornish; modest, sane, fearless, maintaining not only the fine traditions of the Maine bench but also upholding the principles of government and of law on which the happiness of State and Nation rests.

Honoris Causa, DOCTOR OF LAWS
