

Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me.

Published by J. Griffin.

Bowdoin, Dec. 19th 1855

Mr. J. L. Chamberlain:-

Dear Sir:-

Having been permitted to listen from Sabbath to Sabbath, during the past Term, to your interesting and profitable explanations of the Word of God, we entreat you to accept this simple expression, not only of our sincere thanks for the earnest and faithful manner in which you have sought to point out to us the Path of Life, but also of our love and esteem for the kind and brotherly interest, which you have ever shown in our temporal and eternal welfare. Though we deeply regret, that you are so soon [Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored across the vertical fold.]

to leave us, yet, feeling confident that if you go, it will only be at God's call, we would not mur-
-mur,

Hoping, and praying that His blessing may ever attend your exertions to strengthen the Redeem-
-er's Kingdom, and that Paul's groan of Heart may be yours, we would hope to be remember-ed as

Your affectionate Pupils.

S. Henry King

A. P. Whitmore

John W. Weeks.

G. D. Meares, -

W. M. Kings

Geo O Moody

Americus Fuller

L. M. Kyes.

W. O. Ladd.

C. Saunders

George Webster

Alfred Mitchell.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is arranged in several horizontal lines across the page.]

