

Mrs Chamberlain or Fanny
Present.

Wednesday Morning

Dear Mr Chamberlain

1865

I am feeling rather miserable today and as it is so cold & stormy I should be very much obliged if you will allow the children to come to me with their books.

If they delay until eleven they may be able to get all their lessons & recite at one session.

I am sorry for the necessity but I hope it will not often occur.

Yours very truly
Charlotte M. Peabody
