General

The commanding General has recommended you for promotion to the Post of Major General. The letter of recommendation will be forwarded at the earliest practicable moment. Should you desire to receive a copy of the letter of the commanding General, it will give me great pleasure to furnish it -

I am General
Very Respectfully Your obedient Servant
Geo. W. Foster

The first part of the document is a list of names and dates which are arranged in a column on the left side of the page.
 The names are written in a cursive hand and are separated by horizontal lines.
 The dates are written in a similar hand and are placed to the right of the names. The list appears to be a record of some kind of transactions or events.
 The second part of the document is a large block of text which is written in a cursive hand and is arranged in a column on the
 The text is very faint and difficult to read, but it appears to be a continuation of the record or a separate entry. The handwriting is consistent with the first part of the document.
