

Weymouth Aug. 24 1867
Col. & Mrs. Chubbuck.

My Dear Friends,

A few days since I saw with sadness, a notice of the death of your son.

I know full well, that any attempt on my part to alleviate your sorrow, will be unavailing, but I may be allowed to express my sympathy for you, in this deep bereavement & to bear with you, the sorrow.

You mourn, & yet rejoice in the full belief, that the life of earth begins with kind one with, has culminated in that eternal life, which is the glorious inheritance of all saints.

Much, do I respect his memory, for he was a man. He strove & conquered. He was generous & self sacrificing, & by culture, devoted, had he lived, to do noble work, in the education & blessing of our race.

You better know the worth of that dear son, than any other, & must derive therefrom, much of comfort. You see I write to you too, with satisfaction, your labor of love for him, in all trials & needs.

I am not unacquainted, of the deep affection, of her, who love to him, this endearing relation of wife, & was so truly human that relation; to whom, please to deliver my sincere sym-paties.

I must not neglect to say what I feel, that dear Sarah too, has been afflicted the true nature of a sister's love, in all her toil for him, whom she stands to rescue from an early grave.

My very kind regards to herself, & her family, as also, to my young friend Bro. Thomas G.

Any communication from you, will be quite acceptable, especially as to the last days, of your dear son J.

Very truly yours,
Deborah Brewster.

Aug 24th

My dear Mrs Chamberlain

Your letter conveys your heart's sympathy in your deep afflictions. I wish to see you & hear all of John's last days all was peace & trust during his sickness & was it so till the close, he lived about a week after we left. Please write us all I think of you all the time, Glenn Sarah is with you; love to her & the 3 children left comfort you & may God bless them & you with every desirable good.

Write me when you feel that you can & we should like to hear from Sarah much Mary joins me in much love & sympathy for you all

I am your loving friend
E Brewster