Dear Brother:

I must to see George
He was too ill to see anybody.

Mr. Bartram (his Secretary) said that he was not going to interest himself in the delegates at all - so I had to give up that tack.

I will take your letter
with me to New York

and see what can be published. Think about the reviewing of my "auto - Biography" No. 120. I would be glad to just to make my work a little better. Belcher

Death came <sup>(2)</sup> suddenly at last.
He was 10 years my senior - Dr Newman gave him a high eulogium for his faithful life.
Mr <sup>Callahan</sup> ~~Callahan~~'s address was only my personal relation - I put his political difference very plainly into words. His wife (deaf as a stone) sat near me
but left before my address - Mayor Mr <sup>Callahan</sup> ~~Callahan~~ recd. My Res.
& took it to her.

If Katy has not "any good motives" she is in a big company. What then will become of us all. Our Lord does us better about our sins; when he pardons, he pardons <sup>(3)</sup>. He is such a Big Saviour, that I fancy we can trust him in all of it. Lizzie is a little better.

Sets up every day, talks little & waits & waits - We hope
she will get stronger & come down stairs by & by.

I have 9 engagements - Tomorrow
at Northfield Mass. Wednesday
Boston (the Gilman, <sup>Schuyler</sup> ~~Conner~~ & Frank)
New York (30th); Borden's
N.Y. Friday (Prof. Goyens, Gal's

Dear Brother:

Yes I went to see Mr [Andrew] Carnegie. He was too ill to see anybody. Mr [James] Bertram (his Secretary) said that he was not going to interest himself in the delegates at all, so I had to give up that tack.

I will take your letter with me to New York and see what our publishers think about the <revisiting> of my "Auto-Biography". No. No. I would be foolish, just to praise my work or anybody's.

[Rufus] Bullock's death came suddenly at last. He was 10 years my senior. Dr. Newman gave him a high encomium for his faithful life. Then McClellan's address was only very personal relations. I put his political difference very plainly into words. His wife (deaf as a stone) sat near me but left before my address. Mayor [George B.] McClellan [Jr.] rec'd my Ms. & took it to her.

If Katy hasn't "any good motive" she is in a big company. What then will become of us all. Our Lord does not bother about our sins; when He pardons, He pardons. He is such a Big Saviour, that I fancy we can trust him in all of it. Lizzie is a little better - sits up every day, talking little & waits & waits. We hope she will get stronger & come downstairs by & by.

I have 9 engagements - tomorrow at Northfield Mass. Wednesday Boston (the Gilman School Commencement <Custodians> of <Trust>) New York (30th); Borden Sunday N.Y. Friday (Prof. Gregory Col'd Agricultural College) the 31st; To West Point with James' family [Otis' son] Sat. & Sunday (the 1st & 2nd June) & June 4th Hildegard's [James' daughter] Commenc; June 6 - Address at New Britain Conn.; June 8 <Reus's> Brother Whightman's marriage Plainfield N.J. Shall see Lawrence (?) [Lawrence Riggs Howard was Charles' son and was living in Plainfield] June 9th speak at Scarsdale (Harlem R.R.) N.Y. Dr Stookberry meets me in New York &c &c.

Give love to Katy & all around you. Do not argue with folks. Happy faces are good remedies for the "blues".

All join in love. Aff. your brother

Dear Sir:

When the first information was sent to me last January in regard to House Roll #24544 introduced by Mr. Dawes of Ohio, in regard to placing all surviving volunteer officers of the Union Army on the retired list, I called a special meeting of the division officers of the Union Veterans Union, Division of Nebraska, and we formulated a letter directed to members of Congress from Nebraska, and also to J.A.T.Hull, Chairman House Committee on Military affairs.

I am enclosing you the replies I received from our Congressional delegation and assure you as far as the Union Veterans Union of this state is concerned, we are doing everything possible in influencing friends in regard to the passage of this bill.

I expect to call a meeting of the state officers in the near future, in order to collect funds for the use of the finance committee. I would also state here, that the great majority of the boys here are poor and I cannot

Dear Mr. [George T] Little [Bowdoin College
Brunswick, Maine]

I am enclosing herewith the draft of the biographical sketch of my husband that you desired, in which I have made corrections. Also the Loyal Legion Memorial and extracts from one of several appreciative addresses made at the memorial service. These will enable you to suggest somewhat of the affection and esteem which were accorded him though I realize that the notice must be brief. Thanking you for your endeavors, to put on record for his Alma Mater a lasting appreciation of a valued life.

Sincerely yrs.
