

Brevard

enthusiasm

To my Brother, General Charles H. Howard who with the ~~rest~~ enthusing of the boy soldier and a more than brotherly devotion kept close at ~~at~~ my side through the four long years of the war, slept with me on the gravestones at Gettysburg, was wounded with me at Fair Oaks, was thrice brevetted for bravery on the field of battle, supported me by his ~~counsel~~ aided and moral support during the even more terrible strain of reconstruction times and when peace brought relief from the duties of the soldier took up those of the Christian citizen with energy, ability and success as a tribute of my affection and appreciation this book is affectionately dedicated.
