

Feb. 25, 1895.

Col. John E. Bryant, Secy. & Gen. Mgr.,

Mt. Vernon Suburban Land Co.,

Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Dear Colonel:- I have been in correspondence with Mr. Miller and others at Camp Memorial, and know that you write the truth as it is. The Lord will bring them all together, I am quite sure. I am dreadfully sorry that Lewis could not have been thoroughly converted, but am afraid that he was too deeply wedded to his idols. The brothels were too strong for his weakness.

Brother Miller is a host himself, and I will back him all

I can, as well as Bro. Jaeger. With kindest wishes, I am, as ever,

Sincerely your friend,

O. O. Howard

Major-Gen. U. S. Army
(Retired)