6th Mo. (June) 8th 1865.

Major General O. O. Howard.

Respected Friend

My attention has been directed to the appointment of a Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen &c; I rejoice on behalf of suffering and oppressed humanity, in our President's good selection.

I am desirous of obtaining employment in the great and useful work embraced in this Bureau.

I have long laboured for the elevation of the coloured people, endeavouring to raise up in them a higher standard, and more consistent views of Religious, Moral, and Civil duties, to themselves, their country, and their God; in this way by mental cultivation and training, prepare them to enjoy and appreciate their liberty and blessings, that in due time, they may take their rank in the great human family designed for them by our great Creator.

I fully endorse the language of the Commissioner "That the negro should understand he is really free, but on no account, if able to work, should he harbor the thought that the Government will support him in idleness."

Whilst amongst them the greater part of years '63 & '64, which I spent in the valley of the Mississippi, I taught them this, adding that their future welfare and happiness depended mainly on their individual industry, in mental and temporal application.

My knowledge and acquaintance of the negro, with their habits, customs, manners &c, has not prepared me to unite with the radical theories of some, but confirmed me in Practical common ^{being best} sense, influenced by circumstances as actually existing in the immediate vicinity.

I am 50 years of age, healthy and active; born of Quaker parents, and have been for over 20 years, an ordained minister amongst them: as this portion of the christian church does not make any provision for the support of its ministers, but expects them to earn their own livelihood, I am also well conversant in mercantile business; having for 23 years, been an Importer in New York city; can keep books, accounts, &c.

Two of my Sons have been engaged in putting down the late wicked rebellion, one a commissioned officer in the Navy, the other was in the 35th Iowa Inf. Col. Phil.

To find a more extended field, and enlarged opportunity for usefulness, in advancing the true interests of my fellow man in every good way; is the cause of my request for some minor appointment, such being my motives, I do trust that Major General Howard will kindly overlook in me any irregularities in the mode, being ignorant of any other way.

If I am furnished with any proper form &c for an application, I shall feel much obliged, and would endeavour respectfully to comply with such requirements.

Should Major General Howard have ^{no} places to fill, may I very respectfully ask him, to furnish me the address of Major E. Whittlesey Asst. Com.

for state of Mississippi, where most of my time was spent, and where I am well known, or of any, of the other Commissioners, who would be likely to be in need of such assistance as my abilities, and business qualifications offer.

I am strictly temperate, not knowing the feelings of the drunkard. I am ignorant of all gambling and never in my life practised it, or entered a house or the arms of a woman prostitute. I am free from all debt and I hope at peace with all men.

Very respectfully asking the favourable consideration of my application, as also the answering me at early convenience of the esteemed Commissioner I await his kind reply and remains

Very truly

Henry Rowntree.

Major General O. O. Howard.
Washington City. D.C.

Dear Sir,
Permit

me to trouble you with a few lines.

Just after the surrender of Johnson to the invincible Sherman, a considerable quantity of Forage (corn & fodder) was impounded in this neighborhood for the use of the Army, and in many cases receipts were given to those from whom the forage was taken, some signed by the Quarter Master and others by forage Masters with the promise that it would be paid for. The forage was taken principally for the 15th & 17th Corps of your brave Command. Now will you be so kind as to inform me whether the said Recty can be collected and if so how shall we proceed to do so? They seem to be informal or irregular & not proper vouchers of payment in their present form.

I presented them to Col. Boyd Genl. Schofield, Chief I. Master who advised me to write you concerning the matter, saying that he thought it was the intention of the Authorities to pay for forage taken about this time ~~there~~ after the cessation of hostilities.
The parties presenting their claims will be able to show that they are true and loyal citizens and strongly attached to the Union.
If these claims can be paid, General, it will greatly aid this community in raising their crops, and relieve them greatly from their present prostration, and cement their affection for the Government which knows no rival.

Fearing that I have troubled you too much already, I close, presuming upon your kindness which was so largely extended to us in protecting us while in our midst.

Please write me at Raleigh and render us under renewed and lasting obligations.

Your obt. Servt.

Gen Howard,

Dear Sir

I came up to your Quarters this morning to present to you and Mrs. Howard, the compliments of Col. and Mrs. Richard, Borden, my good Father and Mother, with a cordial invitation for you to pay us a visit when you are again in New England. It would afford us all very great pleasure to welcome you to our quiet home in Fall River, and we should enjoy so much the expression of that friendship in which the service of our beloved Country has enkindled the earnest loyal hearts. My good Mother wishes very much to see you. Since the dear old Flag suffered the expulsion, but not the mystical mysticism of Sumpter, she has scarcely ceased her prayers and her laments for the soldiers. It has been a great comfort to us that while our noble men were in the field enduring the terrible labor of redeeming our Country we at home might minister to their wants in so many ways.

If you have not shared in the supply of our hands dear General, you have I trust received, a richer portion of the wisdom and blessing which our Heavenly Father has been pleased to bestow in answer to the prayer of faith.

Now please do come and see us with Mrs. Howard, and the children, and, very soon if you can. Grace will remember little Hattie Borden Mrs. Borden will be very happy to see you at her house, with Mrs. H.

Thanking you and your gallant comments for all that you have done for us in the field,

I am yours with highest regards and esteem—

City Engineers Office
St Louis, June 9. 1865

Dear General,

A long time has elapsed since I wrote to you last and during this period many things have occurred of great moment to the Country.
With the greatest interest have I followed up your movements through the heart of the Confederacy and have enjoyed your achievements the same as if I had been with
you. - Your slow and steady promotion is the surest sign, that it was well deserved, of which I for my part have been long^{ago} convinced.

It was not the momentary impulse and exaltation over one act, but a promotion on reflection, which it seems to me, makes it of much more value.

And even if the government should not have regarded your merits, the opinion of the people is but one, and that is:
that the one armed soldier stands among the first of the nation.

You know very well General, that I am not disposed to flatter a person, but excuse me

for having said so much and for allowing my candid feelings. This expression. - Believe me, if I assure you that I regard the period of my life which I spent in your association, one of the brightest, which will remain inscribed on my memory for ever.

Now I must trouble
you with a matter relating to the old 11th Corps - It is about the books and papers of the same.
You remember General that, when the 11th Corps was dissolved, two books were retained by you which you intended to send to me. The re-

maindw of the papers &c I kept until I could send ^{them} altogether, not wishing to have any of the books missing on examination at the War Department. -

Now as you are stationed in Washington, I have taken the liberty to send the box containing all the books & papers in my possession to your address, so that after adding the books with you, I would ask you to have them turned over to the Adjutant General's office. For a long time have I had the desire to comply with the orders requiring the transmission of these documents

which, without any fault of mine has been delayed unexcusably. I must apologize for charging your officers with something which should be done by me, but under the circumstances I am in hopes to be excusable.

Now and then I hear from the officers formerly connected with the 11th Corps. Among them is Col Ballock, who undoubtedly is the same good man. He speaks of you always as the Kind hearted good General, which in the mouth of Ballock is really meant so.

You have probably heard of my resignation in December last. In short, I will give you my reasons for doing so. My last campaign and career was attended with so little success, that no matter what fault it was, it gave me a disgust for a life of activity as I had to lead for several months last year. Another reason is that my aged father wished me here and that it so happened, that before tendering my resignation a position in this office was offered me by my former chief.

Although I have many times felt a desire to be present when action operations of the army were in progress. I am now pretty well satisfied with my condition.

A great part of my leisure time I spend in adding to my little knowledge of my profession, Civil Engineering and all other time that can be spared ^{to} general studies, which is the greatest satisfaction that I have found so far.

Excuse my encroaching upon your time with such a long letter containing so many useless remarks.

With the greatest respect and my best wishes

I have the honor to remain Yours Sincerely

Maj Genl O.C. Howard,

General:

I am writing you once more, and for the last time.
The war is over. The rebellion is crushed. The flag of the Union waves proudly & triumphantly, over every foot of territory, subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S. Those who abandoned the peaceful pursuits of civil life, for the stern realities of bloody war, can now turn to the ways of life so abandoned.
Those who survive, with hearts filled with gratitude to God for his protecting care & mercy - those who have faithfully discharged their duty, with the proud consciousness that they have aided in upholding the Government of their fathers, against the assaults of the most formidable rebellion the world has seen - There are comforts and consolations to the Christian soldier, of which no human authority can deprive ^{him} ~~them~~. But it must be conceded, that the officials of the Govt, do not, and perhaps cannot, distribute the rewards of service with any thing like even handed justice.
In my case, I have discharged my duty faithfully, zealously, and allow me to add, efficiently. In my judgment, I have been treated with great injustice. As a personal favor I ask ^{you} to read carefully the enclosed paper - Having done so, I think you will say I am right - I am well aware, that I have been thrown into my present unfortunate position, by the force of fortuitous circumstances.

It was my misfortune (at least I so regard it) that my Regt. was assigned to the 11th Corps in the fall of 1862 - It was a greater misfortune (I mean to myself and my military advancement) when the 11th Corps was broken up and its Commander (who had been with ^{it} long enough to become acquainted with the relative merits and capacity of each and every officer in it) transferred to another Corps - My chances of promotion were utterly destroyed, when Genls. Butterfield & Hooker left the army & Genl. Slocum succeeded to the Command of the XXth Corps. Then indeed arose a Pharaoh who knew not Joseph -

In a military hierarchy, as you are aware, it is the power of the Superior officer to prevent the services of his subordinate, however meritorious, from being acknowledged or rewarded. In our service, the subordinate seems to be in the power of the Superior - Hence the Superior, ^{is bound} by the highest of all honorable and moral obligations, to do justice to his subordinate.
Now I respectfully submit to your good judgment; have I been treated justly, fairly? Have I not been, without cause in punishment, humiliated and degraded? Have I not been compelled to suffer from palpable favoritism?

I write you, because I have served under you longer than any other Corps Commander; because I know you abhor injustice; because I believe that if I had continued under your command I should have been subjected to no such unjust treatment; and because I have no doubt that, with your aid, even now, justice can so far be done, that I can go home with honor. You may say that the consciousness of having faithfully discharged his duty, is the good man's reward. Undoubtedly this is so - earthly power cannot deprive him of this. It is his support & consolation under injustice continually & oppression - But this, I apprehend, is no reason why he should be subjected to injustice continually and oppression. It is the successful man that carries off the honor - The meritorious ought to be successful, but you know that merit & success are not always companions.

I undertake to say that the assignment of Casswell to my brigade cannot be justified. It was against every military usage - It was in violation of the practice and policy of our military service - It has been pronounced unjust & unwarranted, by every military officer in the corps to whom the facts have been made known. And to add to the injustice (I will not now qualify it by fit terms) Genl Schoen has put in circulation the statement that the 3^d Brig of the 3^d Div of the 20th Corps, was the best brigade in the Corps that Casswell had brought out to merit & promotion. You know that ^(in regard to Casswell) this is not so - You know more of the brigade than Genl Schoen - You know its discipline, its efficiency, and its reputation, are older than Casswell's Commission as a Colonel. The remark was introduced as reflection upon Casswell's predecessors; and you know that in that respect, it was, (to use no harsher terms) unwarranted.

If there is any thing I have the right to be proud of, and I am proud of, it is the conduct of the Regt I brought into ~~from~~ the field

As you were pleased to say of it on another occasion "it never turned its back to the enemy" The conduct & services of my brigade in that terrible campaign against Atlanta, was recorded by pen & called by name. Look at its record - It is written in blood - Its march from Burnside's Gap to Atlanta can be traced by the graves of its dead heroes fallen in battle. I cannot think of it, of the sacrifices I have made, of the service I have rendered, and the treatment I have received, without feeling indignant I dislike to leave the army with such feelings of ^{to entertain them,} ~~appreciation~~ & injustice unquenching in my mind. Perhaps I ought not, ^{to entertain them,} but is it in human nature to do otherwise?

I have so much confidence in the President & Sec'y of War that I believe that they would relieve ^{me} from my present position if my case could be placed fairly before them. I am aware of the difficulty of accomplishing this, in the immensity & pressure of the public business - If any officer in the Service can do it, I respectfully submit, you can - Under you, I have served, and with your name & fame I am associated. Together we have rejoiced in prosperity & victory; and together we have melted in the dark shadow of adversity. I labored at all times, and in all places, to the utmost of my ability, to the extent of my capacity, ~~I endeavored~~ to maintain & uphold the honor of the Corps & its Commander. In view of "these things" I am now emboldened to appeal to you in the day of my adversity with which as a Commander you are not associated - It is my last effort to obtain redress from the military authorities. My feeling, my defense (and I am placed on the defensive) will come from my own voice & pen.
With your permission I will have a personal interview with you to day or to morrow. - I am with great respect Yours &c James Wood

June 9 1865
181

My dear brother,

Capt. Cole

surprised me much by stepping into my tent last Monday ~~evening~~ He brought a brief letter from Maj.
Hinson - The only words in your hand-writing were "Beaufort S. C." upon the exterior of the envelope containing my Brevet appointments.
(the Brevets)
There were a complete surprise and of course gratifying.

I walked down to Gen. Saxton's with Capt. C. that evening. The Gen^l was glad to have some word from you. He had nearly decided to visit Washington.

I can hardly tell you how glad I was to see some one from you from the personal staff. Capt. C.

suspect Mrs. Saxton would be almost beside herself with delight at such a prospect. She ~~rejoiced~~ her home (which Gen.
Blair gave her).
Gen. Howard.
(See page 7th)

gave me some idea of your situation and how you are occupied.
I am very glad to know Sig--gi is with you.

I have so much to say that I hardly know where to begin. Besides I have been in the habit, you know, of having long talks with you during the past 4 years so that pen & paper seem a very inadequate means of communication - I was sorry Capt. C. could not remain longer. He left next ^{for Denmark} morning. But he came back to my camp at Reville and I had a Dress Parade & Drill (Battalion) for his inspection about which he will tell you.

I think you could not have done better than to appoint Gen.
Laxton to the position you did.

Will it not be permitted him to have control of some troops?

You know the execution of every measure ^{depends} now, and will for some time depend entirely upon the military. If the colored troops in these two States could be organized into a Divⁿ and Gen.
S. assigned to Command it - although it would probably be advisable to distribute it in garrisons yet Gen. S. would then have power to carry out any policy.

It would give him more respect of the existing military authorities also more deference from the inhabitants - With a military organization & Command come also staff officers and many prerogatives, as you are well aware, which would facilitate his operations much. I am convinced, were you in his place, you would consider it highly important to have some Troops under your control at least for a year to come.

There seems to be a propriety in giving a military man who returns his rank some actual commission if it is deemed, also, for the good of the cause.

Gen. S. now has under his control these two Regts. 128th & 104th - (the latter not yet mustered in & some fear that it will not be though it seems to me better that the Govt accept a Regt. just organized full to the maximum - which it has cost so much to recruit - Besides it is undoubtedly better to provide for as many colored men & families as possible by getting the men into the army.

My men are learning to read and write - Have become quite neat and soldierly in appearance and you would certainly say are much improved from what they were as recruits.

I expect my Regt. will be turned over to Gen. Gillmore for duty soon. Gen. S. will ask to have it retained here and the 32nd U. S. C. T. sent away. This ^(if accomplished?) will give me command of the Fort here and even if Gen. S. has no control of troops by any arrangement from you - ^{we} ~~we~~ ^{together} shall work very harmoniously, of course as I see you have permitted his Hd. qrs. to remain here. This is certainly the most advantageous place for access to the islands and about mid-way between Charlotte & Savannah.

Capt. Cook says Maj.
 Whittelsey is to leave Florida.
 I am pleased at this for I may see him sometimes.

The Lieut. Col. ⁽¹⁶⁾ of 82nd W.M.F. comes to me this morning about applying to you for that Note. He will be Lieut. Col. I know nothing about him.

Don't you think you will come down here this Fall? Sometimes I think it would be well for me to take a respite & go North in August. I get rather weary here sometimes & they all say it will be intensely hot in August - Still I have not settled to go - I do not trouble myself any about the heatiness - I think I will be well. But it sometimes seems that I would come back to my work with more vigor & would ^{well} accomplish more after a little relief & contact with the vitalizing thoughts & feelings of friends at the North - I do hope that you will visit us if you can & bring Lizzie. I [See margin Page 1st]

can I do to deserve such a favor?
[Page 9th]

There is one important matter that I wished to mention. I hear from different sources that Gen.
Grover at Savannah seems almost in sympathy with Rebels. He has even prohibited the Drum Corps of the 33^d U. S. C. T. to play a certain air which he considers "incendiary" - It makes one think of the dark age of Slavery to see that word "incendiary". He is certainly not in sympathy with those who are laboring for the Freedmen - Rebel Officers record their names at the hotels as "captain" or "so" of "C. S. A."

Hatch at Charleston & Potter of District Port Royal are complained of as of the same stripe.
St. Col. Beebe is to have a leave in July and would

visit Maine if you & your family were there. He may do so at any rate as he has a special attraction at Belfast - Dr. Monroe is dead - You may remember Dr. M. He used to be Surgeon 2nd Maine & was in the Legislature last Winter.

We are all expecting to be brought before an Examining Board of our officers are resigning on this acct. Perhaps I had better but I think I will wait & see.

Do you suppose Willard will remain here? He has been doing much apparently to connect the Freedmen interest of late.

Induced Chief Justice Chase to think he (Willard) was as good a friend the black man could have.

He appointed several officers of Colored Reg on his staff - Woodford you will remember -

Give you the reception speech at the Astor House when first come through with 3rd Maine. He is Post Brig. Gen. & Chief of Staff for Gen. Willard.

Do you know my warmest thanks for securing me, to secure the Brevets. W. M. M.

Major Genl C. C. Howard,

Dear Sir,

I address
you at this time, to ask you, if you can and will detail or appoint my son Capt Nathan C. Goodnow now at Louisville Ky, acting Ordnance officer of the Cavalry Depo. at that place, and formerly on Genl Sherman's staff, to some duty in your department?
My son has been in the army now nearly three years, first app'd as Lt in a mounted Battery in Illinois, and very soon after a Capt in the 16 Illinois Cavalry.
He was with Genl Sherman's army to the taking of Atlanta and and after that was ordered back to Ky to attend to duties pertaining to the refitting several Cavalry Regiments. In November last he applied for orders to join his regiment, instead of which he rec'd orders assigning him to duty at Louisville, where he has since been. On the 14 Dec last he was taken suddenly and violently ill at Louisville, and was confined to his room for 53 days with fever and rheumatism, which terminated in his recovery, with the loss of the sight of his right eye, and depriving him, of the opportunity he had hoped for, the more active duties of the service.

I have understood he has a good reputation for energy and ability in the duties he has been assigned to and that Gen Steineman has spoken well of him as an officer.

I have good reasons for believing his habits of temperance, sobriety, and good Morals are well established, and I know him to be more than ordinarily capable in business.
He has two motherly boys depending on him, and it seems to me he is among the thousands who, being earnestly and patriotically given their services to the country from pure motives, and are entitled to consideration. For you personally, I know from letters to me two years ago, he has the highest respect and admiration. If you can therefore, assign him to some duty or place in your department, I should be grateful to you.
If need be, I think I could furnish you with testimonials from many of your personal friends
With the highest respect

Terms and Conditions on which this and all Messages are received by this Company.

In order to guard against and correct as much as possible some of the errors arising from atmospheric and other causes appertaining to telegraphy, every important message should be REPEATED, by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. Half the usual price will be charged for repeating the message, and while this Company in good faith will endeavor to send messages correctly and promptly, it will not be responsible for errors or delays in the transmission or delivery, nor for the non-delivery of REPEATED MESSAGES, beyond TWO HUNDRED times the sum paid for sending the message, unless a special agreement for insurance be made in writing, and the amount of risk specified on this agreement, and paid for at the time of sending the message. Nor will the Company be responsible for any error or delay in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of ANY UNREPEATED MESSAGE, beyond the amount paid for sending the same, unless in like manner specially insured, and amount of risk stated hereon, and paid for at the time. No liability is assumed for errors in cipher or obscure messages; nor is any liability assumed by this Company for any error or neglect by any other Company over whose lines this message may be sent to reach its destination, and this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender of this message to forward it over the lines extending beyond those of this Company. No agent or employee is allowed to vary these terms, or make any other or verbal agreement, nor any promise as to the time of performance, and no one but a Superintendent is authorized to make a special agreement for insurance. These terms apply through the whole course of this message on all lines by which it may be transmitted.

My Dear Friend:

Perhaps the mad current of Events which has swept over our land for the last four years, has not so entirely washed my name from your memory, as to render the above Caption less true. Then I was wont to hear it - & that I may still claim it without being considered presumptuous -

The fierce struggle is over - the will of God is plainly stamped on our destiny, & I pray that His Grace may be sufficient to sustain us all, in our prosperity & success, alike in our misfortunes & adversity.

I cheerfully acquiesce in His wise decrees & am more than willing to abide by whatever fate may be mine in this World, looking, through faith, above to the World on High as the goal of all genuine happiness.

This fearful Tragedy has been enacted; surely it was the working of a Higher Power than mortal; & all must admit that the part borne by the South was as essential to the consummation of the ends obtained, as was that of the National Government.

May God sanctify the results to the good of all His people -

You most likely have not heard of my marriage, which took place Sept. 63 near Atlanta, Ga - when I was married to Miss Schou - daughter of Rev. E.W. Schou of N.E. Church - a Missiary clergy of the same

My Wife is all that Heaven could desire & in her I am equally blessed - a most affectionate wife & an earnest, zealous member of the Church - & in our Precious Boy of 10 months, we have a great treasure - an earnest pledge of God's love for us -

Please present my kindest regards to Mrs. S. - & the Children -

I could, very I would write much more but not now - I must await & see, if I can still subscribe myself,

Truly Yr. friend &c

M. H. Wright

Maj. Genl. O. O. Howard -

Chf. Fredm Bureau,

Washington, D.C.

P.S. I shall remain in Madison, until I fully understand my duties; & know what I am to do, or is to be done with me - You have the time & inclination to write me, it will give me great pleasure to write you fully - M. H. W.

Dear Friend

In reply to your kind inquiry of what you could do to assist me, I beg leave to suggest that you would have an interview with Sec Stanton urging his attention to my case if I could have remained some time in Washington it would have been of advantage, as we were under the care of Mr Weed we felt bound to return when he did, could there be any arrangement made for my spending some time in Washington it would be advantageous I have no doubt no one seems to realize our painful position. I feel that my heart is breaking and my anxiety in regard to my children is very great. does it not seem hard after having suffered so much for the cause, and braved all dangers to success and assist our brave men who perilled their lives to save their country, that I should have become beggared, so suddenly deprived of wealth of a home of luxury and comfort, and to become a homeless wanderer. Many wise men who examine the matter agree in thinking the Sec, has the power to grant relief.

relief. Will you not add your influence, see him in person and urge my necessities, do you think it would be of any advantage to see the President in my behalf Mr Lee Seward expressed much sympathy for me and would add his influence if you have an opportunity to speak with him on the subject I would feel grateful I hope much from your interview with Mr Stanton one fourth of what I expended on the Prisoners would now make me comfortable, which is all I desire, I beg my friend you will be able to propose some way of ~~Miss Stanton~~ What may meet the Hon. Sec's views. Mr Weed has done nothing since our return. He is awaiting a promised letter from Mr Stanton and I fear the whole matter has escaped his memory, and will you not revive the matter, and keep up his interest. I have received many letters from the Riseners, would like you to see them. My daughter sends kind remembrances we both indulge in hopes of ultimate success and feel your influence will be great and will not be withheld. I hope to be able to come to Washington again at the suggestion of Mr Weed my daughter wrote to Mr Stanton to day, Respectfully Amelia Weston

of this matter has to be referred to Congress would there not be some relief granted by an advance or a requisition on the quartermaster department I am so anxious to have a home for my family I cannot bear the thought of separation the convent is the only asylum I see at present and I shudder at the thought I know that I expended one hundred thousand dollars in the prisoner in four years this they will vouch for it cost a mess of forn one hundred dollars to get a dinner one fourth of what I expended would now place me above want it would be a mite to the Government and so much to me at present I feel that I need not urge you to speak in my behalf your native goodness of heart will prompt you to do all you can for me and my dear little ones your little tutu is now sheltered in the convent to relieve me of expense I have been waiting so patiently for some action my hopes are again excited god grant success may crown the efforts of my friends much of that hope rests upon you my kind and good friend would others felt as you do I would soon feel comparatively happy, Truly Yours

My dear Cousin

I truly beg your pardon for troubling you again. Knowing how very busy you are and will be very as possible.

I take the liberty of sending Page letter which tells the story. And ask as a favor of you, for which I should ever feel very grateful as I do for your many past acts of kindness: Can you not submit him to be might be examined in Washington before an impartial board -

I do not think it - just for a Col and Vice Col to examine their own Officers

Col H. had the making of the Corps before and I know of many & many a field Officer who if they could would protect against his making it over - Gen. H. and he have had interests together as friends so he will support him in everything

Page position is and has been very trying but it has proved to be his noble principle

If the poor fellow had not an empty stare I should wish him to leave the Army but his profession is gone & he can take the sword and he has little business experience.

I fear the sympathy of most business men does not include heart and purse

I feel he has earned his position and that his men ought not to be able to make him give it up -

His life has been one long struggle and I do think he feels his courage

Will you not please give him a few lines of comfort and advice

Hearing you might be home I wish not to ask you I am going to write to my old friend Gen Underwood who is President of a Court-Martial to enquire if you are not in the city & he can direct Pugh to please do so - I write there without his knowledge Remembering the fable of the mouse who grud the Lion from the snail I may be baited by & help him - With a good deal of love for you & yours I am ever

Dear Sir,

I wrote you a note
some days since, begging you, if it were in your power, to give me some writing from your office. As I have received no answer to it, I can only suppose it has never reached its destination. Since I applied to you for a clerkship in your Bureau, I have obtained the appointment to me in the Treasury Department, at the sum of $50.00 per month. After most earnest endeavor I find that I cannot obtain board for myself and child for less than $48.00 per month in this city. Pardon me for writing these particulars to you, but I much wish to state that that sum is totally inadequate to my support; and that I must find some other employment. If you could give me some writing from your Bureau, which I could take home

Read and 3/11/66 ~~to me~~ with me, and do nights and mornings, I assure you I should not only be most truly grateful to you, but I think you would feel that you had assisted one who was really in need. I hope it is needless for me to state that I should try most faithfully to do my duty to your satisfaction.
I am not accustomed to asking favors, and I hardly know how to word my request but "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," and if in your kindness, you do see fit to grant my request; the blessings of Heaven, who has promised to bless the widow and the fatherless, will I am sure rest upon you. I will call again tomorrow morning to get an answer to my request;

With the utmost respect,

Dear Sir,

I desire to express to you my gratitude to a kind Providence, who has placed you in charge of so many of the very important interests of the freed men. I pray that you may be endowed with wisdom for the great work, & that you may be able to find men pre-eminently fitted to aid you, without maning the work. The real elevation, having any thing like a symmetrical development, of this people, is a slow work. Men of weak faith in God, or who cannot do this work heartily as unto the Lord, are very apt to soon grow weary of it. The cross of the colored man's cause, is not without its odium, true Christian love & a certain amount of courage, are requisite, or not only will the cause suffer, but the laborer himself will sustain moral damage, as has too often occurred,

23
Gov. Lorton desired me to make out a code of regulations relative to the marriage relations. I hope to have them ready by next steamer. I find it a very important, & also very difficult work.

There is another field of immense importance to be provided for. I refer to the settlement of the estates of deceased freemen, & the care of their minor children. Even if the States were reorganised, their laws ignore all the interests of the freedmen. All their courts are barred against them.

One case, which I will give, that occurred on one of the islands a few weeks since will, ~~make~~ ^{well}, at once illustrate the wants I refer to.
A freedman died, leaving two motherless children, one a babe of a few months, the other perhaps three years. There was no one to look after either his children or infants. The money, by military order was paid for nearly $500, ^{this} & deposited in the Freedmen's bank. Who shall be guardian of the children & expend these funds for their education?

Swore thousand similar cases will occur before one year.
Would not it be well to establish something like a "Commissioner of States" department? He could oversee this whole field -

A court of some kind, in which the freedmen shall be allowed ^{give} testimony is absolutely necessary.

Necessity is being laid on us by Providence, though the force of stubborn facts involving equally the white man's interest to do some sort of justice to the colored man.

I trust I shall be excused for naming another matter, Genl.

Grove has been relieved of the Command of Savannah, by Genl. Gillman. Brig Genl Woodford has been placed in command of the Port & Genl Birge of the District.

Genl Grove was the favorite of all the disloyalists, as is generally understood. His restoration cannot aid, in any way the interests of the freedmen. I think Sec. Stanton knows this & between you, the Secretary and other friends, I trust Genl.
Grove will be assigned to duty elsewhere.

I pray that God may give you all needed wisdom for your work. & good men only to aid you. Pardon my freedom & believe me yours truly, W. French

General,

I called to See you when I was in Washington some weeks ago and again when you were in this City last week but on each occasion I was disappointed. My object in calling upon you was the natural desire I felt to see an old friend, but this was not my only object. I wanted besides to enquire of you whether as "Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau" you had in your gift any office or appointment that I could fill. As you are away I entered the service and at the very commencement of the war and after participating in most of the engagements I was finally taken prisoner last August on the Weldon Rail Road.

Last Spring I was released and soon after, my term of service having expired, I was mustered out. I at once opened an office for the practice of my profession, the Law, but times are not now what they were when I abandoned my business and took to the field. After a trial of some months, I find myself with scarcely any business on hand, and very little prospect at present of getting any. Thinking that perhaps in starting a new institution you might be in want of assistants, I thought I would apply to you.

I am General

With much respect

Your old friend

J. A. Leach
