

My dear Sir

I received your letter from London by the Port. There will be no difficulty in raising a few shares of the money he requires here if we can get the money accordingly no word.

I have applied to the Messrs. and to Mr. also later it, but while they individually favor it they hesitate as to the propriety of a General Association as theirs. sending special care to a sectarian work. - I have sent Mr. Porter to have a free talk with them on Monday after noon at their office and if you can write to any of your friends in that way - so as to reach Monday morning it will help him much and I shall do what I can to aid him.

I shall be pleased to hear that Mr. H. is well and in no trouble

Yours truly
J. O. March

SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR FREEDMEN.—On last Sabbath a Sunday school for the Freedmen was organized at the Baptist church in this place, with over eighty scholars. Some of our best citizens and first ladies of the place are teachers in it. We understand that similar movements are contemplated by the other churches of the city.

Sir

Enclosed I send you a slip taken from the Rome Courier, a paper published in the city of Rome Ga; for two purposes; first as an evidence of a gratifying change of Public sentiment, and secondly, to ask your assistance in obtaining for the colored people in the District I am from, some forty or fifty Sunday School Libraries to be distributed in the Counties of DeKalb, Fulton, Cobb, Kauf, Cherokee, Gordon, Rock, Floyd, Chattooga, Walker, Dade, Lee, Whitfield and Murray. If the Bureau over which you preside do not furnish such Books, will you aid me in obtaining them from Christian Publication societies! The colored people have not the means to pay for Libraries, neither have their white friends in the Counties named, this being the section of Georgia so completely devastated by the armies of Sherman and Johnson in the many and bloody battles for the possession of Atlanta.

Very Respectfully your obedient servant,

My dear Sir,

Have you seen the little book published by us from the pen of Geo Fisk, entitled "Plain Counsels for Freedmen"? I think it admirably adapted to their use.

It has occurred to me that if you have the needed time you might also prepare some thing which would be of great value to those people. Your intimate knowledge of their circumstances and wants would enable you to speak intelligently, and your name will carry with it more weight than probably any other living man's. We should be exceedingly pleased to publish any such work that

You might prepare in such style as you would prefer, and furnish large quantities for distribution by you.

You have seen our school books, I believe. We have heard intimations in a few cases that we have not done well in calling them "Friedman's Readers"; that they do not like the idea of having anything made for them as a class, but want just the same sort of books as the white people. Now, dear Sir, please inform me how much there is in this. We can change the title if necessary. What would you think of our calling them the "Lincoln Readers," the "Lincoln Spelling Book," in honor of the great & good friends of the colored people? Or can you make any other suggestion which will help us make our books more acceptable & useful?

Pardon me for troubling you on this matter & believe me most respectfully & cordially yours, J. P. Warren,

 any information as to the number of schools for freedmen, pupils late rebellious state for the instruction of colored children pleased to make in furtherance of the subject will be thankfully received.
