Dear Dear Howard

Your $2⁰⁰ note is at hand I will give you one hundred dollars for your Church enterprise - but can not conveniently spare the sum just now. as all I can give to any cause this month I am contributing to the Centenary of Methodism - October is our jubilee month - I can give you $50⁰⁰ in November. and the other $50⁰⁰ in December - I feel a warm interest in Congregationalism. it is the next best thing to Methodism. I think I must stir up my Congregational brethren in this City to give you a few thank offerings - If you will write me a note stating that you will the large hearted Congregationalists of St Louis would give you a helping hand and that you write me in relation to it because you have no personal acquaintances in St Peters Church and that you think I have a little good Congregational blood in me &c - I will try & get you some subscription. I meet the fellow "on Change" every day when I am at home and they are all my warm personal friends.

I want your Church and our Metropolitan M. E. Ch to be completed at an early date. You must occasionally drop in and say "Amen" & "God bless you" to our Washington Methodists - you are no stranger in memory of 'old' Lang. Syrie
- my family continue well - Charlie & Mary are in school. The baby grows rapidly like the Radical party since Mr Johnson swung round the circle - the Southern loyalists are with us to day and five miles of torch lights are now rallying to receive them

- my love to your dear ones -

Faithfully Yrs J. H. + R. W.

Dear Genl.

Yours of 29th ult with Y. W. C. Assoc enclosure was duly received - I am moving about considerably these days doing a little service for the Centenary Cause: hence the frequent delay in attention to my correspondence - Genl Howe wrote me on the same subject to whom I have this day responded that I was just now considering propositions for business and could not give a definite reply - I hope soon to see you in Washington where I will be better prepared to tell what

P.S. I am very grateful for your call upon Secy of Treasury - I have a very pleasant letter from him - He can not do just what my friends want but will do all he can if we conclude to go on with the Bank. My old friends are very desirous that I should make up the organization & go ahead - I am a little timid about the matter until our political affairs are in better condition -

Maj. Gen. Howard:—

My Dear Brother.

If you can let me know in what train you will arrive in Pittsburgh, I will meet you at the depot, on your arrival.

The latest train in which you can arrive, in season for the lecture, will be the N.Y. or the Philad. Express, which arrive, within half hour of each other, say between one & two o'clock, P.M.

I am requested by the Young Men's Christian Association, & by a number of our best citizens, to return thanks to you for your kind acceptance of their invitation to visit our city. I cannot express to you, General, the pleasure the prospect of seeing & hearing you, has given generally.

I write now simply to say, that our list of Lecturers has been published, your name heading the column. None, however, have yet named the date. We would be pleased to have you open the course, sometime the present month, October, on Monday, Wed. or Friday evening - these evening are not generally used for religious service in any of our churches.

We wish, Gen. to ^{accommodate} ourselves to your own time, & would not appear obtrusive or troublesome. We merely express our desires & await your reply.

With high esteem & gratitude
I am truly

Dear Sir,

The
Daily papers have announced that, you have consented to deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. My Mother cordially unites with me in the wish that, you would make our house your home during your visit to Newark, at that period. I recall with pleasure my service under you in the ever active 4th Corps, when upon the staff of Genl. Newton, and also my connection with your own staff, during the movement from Chattanooga

Dear Mrs. Bartlett,

The bearer, Miss E. Lile is a friend of mine, who writes me, that she designs going to Washington in a week or two. As she is a stranger there, and goes to make herself useful, and of course to do good, I can think of no one, who will be more able and willing to aid her by advice and sympathy than yourself. She came to Oberlin thirteen years ago, I think; resided most of the time at Prof. Peck's, and was for several terms a pupil of mine. She was well acquainted with my cousin, Charley Morse, and is an intimate friend of Miss Hannah Clarke to whom he was engaged. She latterly has spent some years in England, having daughterly care of an aged Grandfather, and returned to the U. States again after his death. She

I may be glad to consult with you before deciding what field of labor to enter at Washington - if that is not already decided -

I had a delightful little visit with Lester, when he was at Oberlin.
Am sorry to have missed seeing you - but thank you so much for trying to see me.

With much love and sympathy Yours ever,

W. P. Dasecomb.

You will find Miss Tite a lady of excellent principles, refined in manners and habits, truly intelligent, and pious - ready to do good as she may have opportunity - I forgot that this was not all included in saying she was a friend of mine.
Give much love to Mr. B. and Lester - and shake and pat the baby for me.

Most of your Oberlin friends are well. Poor Mark Lincoln is very low - also Lillie Grannis. Oh, how I pity their poor mothers! W. P. D.

Dear General

Many thanks for your kind note of 1st inst., (about the Board). I have received an order to report to Gen. Augur at New York, in or before the 20th inst. ant., and shall probably leave on Monday next.

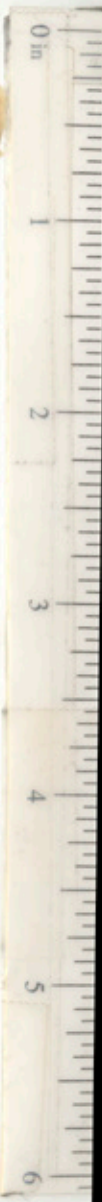

I have never met General Augur, and would like a note to him by way of introduction from you or from the Secretary, according to your judgment. The latter I merely mention, because after I was appointed he announced it to my Father in a note that would have gone very far with a Board. I have asked the Adjutant General for a copy of your note to the Secretary, written when I was with you.

Dear General

Yours of the 30th ult arrived here during my absence ~~last~~ ~~gone~~. I have finally decided as to my future occupation, after leaving the service on the 1st of December next and have agreed to purchase the "Hart plantation" on the coast of this State. I am to pay down $5000 in cash next Thursday, ~~next~~ if nothing happens to prevent. This will take all the ready money I can command at present, but if nothing interferes with my arrangements I shall be able and glad to send you $50, perhaps more, at the end of this month. The place I have in view has no freed-people on it at all and is not to come into my possession until the present crop, raised by white men, is gathered so by no possibility can I be charged with planting while an
