THE TRAITORS TO THE SOUTH.

The men at the South who stood steadfastly by the Government of the United States through all the dreary years of the fluctuating war to subdue the rebellion—the faithful among the faithless—the loyal among the disloyal—the true among the false, have been, time and again, characterized by the reconstructed newspapers as traitors to their section. No word of scorn is too bitter, no expression of hate is too violent, no denunciation is too strong, when applied to those natives of the soil who would not be seduced from their allegiance to the national authority. But although held up to public detestation as scoundrels, renegades and traitors, the objects of so much persecution have sought to return good for evil. We have a case in point in Alabama. That State probably contains a larger number than any other of the class which adhered to the Union. That State probably contains more needy and suffering poor than any other. Starvation sits by the fireside of hundreds, perhaps of thousands. The people of the North at one time donated large quantities of provisions for a portion of these destitute, many of whom cursed the source whence the assistance came, even while sharing in the benefits of the bounty. The abhorred Freedmen's Bureau for a considerable period alleviated the wants of the poverty stricken with liberal rations, which were only too often accepted in no spirit of gratitude. Not long since, the issuance of these rations ceased by military order, and the destitute once more began to feel the gnawings of hunger. At length the suffering became so wide-spread and so appalling that it was feared many would die of absolute starvation. Then what did these scorned traitors to the South? Did they pass by, like the Levite, on the other side? Did they remember the fierceness with which they had been persecuted during the days of the rebellion? Did they treasure up the maltreatment and deprivations of their own families throughout the war? No; nobly they buried all animosity. The leading men among the hated and despised class took it upon themselves to appeal to General Howard to re-order the issue of rations as before. Letter upon letter poured in upon him from these traitors to the South, beseeching him to extend the bounty within his power. And he listened to them, and ordered that provisions to the amount of forty thousand dollars per month should be distributed to the famishing poor for three months. Now, in consequence, many a suffering household is saved daily from utter want by the beneficence of the Freedmen's Bureau, induced by the stirring appeals of the stigmatized, the hated, the persecuted traitors to the South. Though Alabama owes so much to these men, will her people do them justice? Will she cease to execrate them for doing voluntarily what others have been forced to do by the force of arms—submit to the national authority? We fear not; but time will show.

"A. W. L. S."

Circular No. 4,--Oct. 20th, 1866.

Gen. O. O. Howard.--The following are all of Gen. Howard's appointments for the "A. W. L. S.:" *

1867--Tuesday,	Feb. 19	Ann Arbor, Mich.....	" Student's Lect. A."
Thursday,	" 21	Chicago, Ill.....	" Y. M. A."
Friday,	" 22	Racine, Wis.....	" Lect. A."
Saturday,	" 23	Milwaukee, Wis.....	" Y. M. A."
Monday,	" 25	Janesville, Wis.....	" Y. M. A."
Tuesday,	" 26	Madison, Wis.....	" Madison Inst."
Wednesday,	" 27	Dubuque, Iowa.....	" Y. M. Lib. A."

* Gen. Howard makes the above appointments with the distinct understanding that he shall be released from them, without prejudice, in case any unforeseen circumstances should arise to prevent his fulfilling them. He is to lecture at Kalamazoo, Mich., on Wednesday, Feb. 20, but not for the "Y. M. Lib. A." as I understand the matter.

His terms (as fixed by himself) are invariably $100 per Lecture, and Expenses--i. e.--Hotel Expenses and R. R. fare from the preceding point lectured at.

Since sending out the above Route of Gen. Howard, I have written him again, asking him if he could not favor a few more Societies, and have received answer from him, to the effect that the above are all that he can possibly serve this season.

Society.

Lecture Co

lecture at the successing place on its own proper evening, distinctly understood, as it will save much trouble. (And I will here state that I shall abide by this rule in all of the routes which I shall lay out in future; that the Societies may not think I wish to be arbitrary or unaccommodating will explain that I do so because I cannot do otherwise.)

Thursday,	Mar.	7	Janesville, Wis.....	"Y. M. A."
Friday,	"	8	Madison, Wis.....	"Madison Inst."
Wednesday,	"	13	Dubuque, Iowa.....	"Y. M. Lib. A."
Thursday,	"	14	".....	"
Monday,	"	18	Racine, Wis.....	"Lect. A."
Tuesday,	"	19	Chicago, Ill.....	"Y. M. A."
Wednesday,	"	20	Laporte, Ind.....	"Reading R. & Lib. A."
Thursday,	"	21	Indianapolis, Ind.....	"Y. M. Lib. A."
Friday,	"	22	Terre Haute, Ind.....	"Y. M. Lib. A."
Monday,	"	25	".....	"
Wednesday,	"	27	Fort Wayne, Ind.....	"Y. M. C. A."
Thursday,	"	28	Toledo, Ohio.....	"Lib. A."
Friday,	"	29	Pontiac, Mich.....	"Student's Lect. A."
Monday,	April	1	Olivet, Mich.....	"Olivet L. A."
Tuesday,	"	2	Kalamazoo, Mich.....	"Y. M. Lib. A."
Wednesday	"	3	Jackson, Mich.....	"Y. M. A."
*Friday	"	5	Cleveland, Ohio.....	"

* Am not certain whether his Lecture at Cleveland is for the "Library Association" or not—will the Sec. please inform me?

As previously stated, the above list comprises all the Lectures Mr. Gough will be able to give before the Societies of the "A. W. L. S.," this season. I have done my very best to induce him to favor all of our Societies applying for him, and I know Mr. Gough strongly desired to do so, but he could not fill all of our applications without breaking some positive engagements, made before our Convention in June last. I had hoped that he would have been able to have served Ionia.

Chicago. Oct. 31. 1866.

Maj. Genl. O. O. Howard,
(Washington D.C.) Dear Sir,

Your favour of Sept. 27th was duly recd., stating that you will not be able to give any more Lectures to the "N.W.L.S." than those specified (7 in all) in the List contained in your letter of Sept. 15th, previously acknowledged by me, (Sept. 15th).

In behalf of the "Associated Western Literary Societies," I hereby formally accept your proposition to lecture at the following places, and before the Societies named, on the dates given below, all being the same as specified by yourself—

1867.	Place.	Society.	Lecture Committee.
Tues. Feb. 19.	Ann Arbor. Mich.	Students Lect. A."	J. W. Denman.
Thurs. . 21.	Chicago, Ill.	"G. W. A."	C. L. Brown.
Frid. . 22.	Racine, Wis.	"Lecture A."	W. V. Baker.
Sat. . 23.	Milwaukee, "	"G. W. A."	Fred. C. Winkler.
Mon. " 25.	Janesville, "	"G. W. A."	W. Smith, Jr.
Tues. " 26.	Madison, "	"Madison Inst."	D. J. Powers.
Wed. " 27.	Dubuque, Iowa	"G. W. Lib. A."	S. L. Torbert.

Terms, $100 each, and expenses.

I have notified the several Societies, as per enclosed printed Slip taken from my last circular, and have received their acceptances, and they will all expect you on their respective dates, D.V.

Please acknowledge the receipt of this, at same time giving me the "Title" of your Lectures, and oblige.

Yours Respectfully,

Edwin Lee Brown.

General

Some two months
since I requested the Hon. Genl. Van Horn, M.C. to ask, for me, the appointment of Civil Agent in the Freedmans Bureau, to go to Texas.

To this letter a reply was received stating, that if I would accept the position of D^y Lieut. in the regular Army, you would try and get it for me, as no Agents would be appointed from Civil life, as long as they could be obtained by detail from the Army. I replied, accepting your kind offer, and thanking you for the attention it had received, referring at the same time to my application for a position in the Army on file in the War Department, accompanying it was a letter from Mr. Van Horn. Never having heard anything further in relation to it. I take the liberty of writing to inquire whether it has been received, and if so, will any action be taken upon it.

Hoping you may be pleased to use
your influence to secure me a position,

I remain, Very respectfully

Your obedient servant

Dear General

A few days ago I wrote you, but having received no answer, I write again lest my first may have failed to reach you.

Our D. M. C. A. is starting a course of lectures partly to benefit the public, partly to try and lay the foundation of a library.

It has occurred to me that possibly you might be coming East this season either to Maine or at least to Boston, and might so arrange as to give me

the pleasure of a call, and our good people the pleasure and benefit of a talk upon the Freedom or any other subject you might think best.

Please let me know
if such a thing is possible,
and if so please state the time and terms.

I have the sympathy
interest, and prayers of us
all, in your trying position
and faithful and successful labors, for one whose self-sacrifice never has so thoroughly allied himself with the Egyptian

Yours very truly

My dear General,

Although an earlier interview
would be preferable
on some accounts
yet, I think it will (substantially) enable
me to accomplish
my object if I can see you at my house after the termination of your visit at Mr. Loring's

I beg you to present to Mr Loring my thanks for his invitation
to meet you at his house
which it will be inconvenient for me
to accept this evening
