My dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS, U.S.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, D.C. 16 March 1867
 My Genl O. O. Howard

Dear Sir: The private Bill for the relief of the famishing poor in the fifth & sixth West divisions in the Committee of the whole without formal action. Our reason of indifference to the fate of the Poor, is the statement made in the House and in the Press that you do not desire the appropriations necessary.

I understood you very differently when spoken to by Miss Mayne in company with your husband in the House. From your report I would say the appropriation should be $500,000 more than it is. - From letters received by me and articles published in the papers (for example the letter in this morning's Intelligencer) I would infer that the restriction in the fourth demand of this legislation.

If you are for this I will please if you feel at liberty so to do say so in a note to me. In the Globe of the 14th you will find a report of what I said in favor of the paper of the Press. As your good name has been used to defeat the Press, it seems to me a good word from you might be allowed to aid its paper.

Very truly
Your friend
Mr. A. Bingham

My dear Sir

Yours of the 15th gives us liberty to publish your letter of the 11th if we should so choose is received.

There is a sentence in that letter liable to misinterpretation. That you "prefer Christians for educational work" we know and that is why we all like you and so earnestly support you; but the connection in which this sentence stands might seem

Alphina Enfield.

John Enfield
Enfield

to force to give it an implication against the body of professing Christians, to which Mr. Whilock is understood to belong. If you were to say "I prefer Christians by whatever name called." or any thing else that would convey your idea without seeming to imply an invidious distinction, I think it would be better.

My object is for the sake of the cause to keep the Roman out of "theological difficulties". We have done our best to get clear of protes-tantic rocks & denominational quicksands, but our success though very encouraging has not been letter allowing him sentences in the letter would seem to reflect upon the denomination to which

Rev. Mr. Bullock belongs.

My dear Genl.

I was before the Indrury Committee this AM.
& could not fully testify as I had not the opportunity to examine the Record of the transactions of the Bureau while I was there.
Mr Wilson told me that ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~ sack had been sent for. Will you be so kind as to let me know when ~~the~~ sack will be received here, as I cannot continue my testimony until then.
I would call on you in person, but my business engagements will not allow me to do so, until after the close

Maj. Genl. O. O. Howard

Dear Sir

Your letter came in season. It was just the thing you could not have improved it for the place and occasion. I read it at the meeting: it was listened to with marked interest, which betokened the pleasure the people would feel in seeing and hearing you in this city.

After the present political campaign is over - in April, the way may be open for addresses from yourself and Genl. Hawley, our able Governor.
He is superior in an address or debate.
I do wish that he may be re-elected.

Your letter is published in a paper of New Haven; while Reddyman Abbott our Genl. Secy. took a copy to publish in New York, he was so pleased with it it will help us very much.

With respects & gratitude

Gen. Howard:

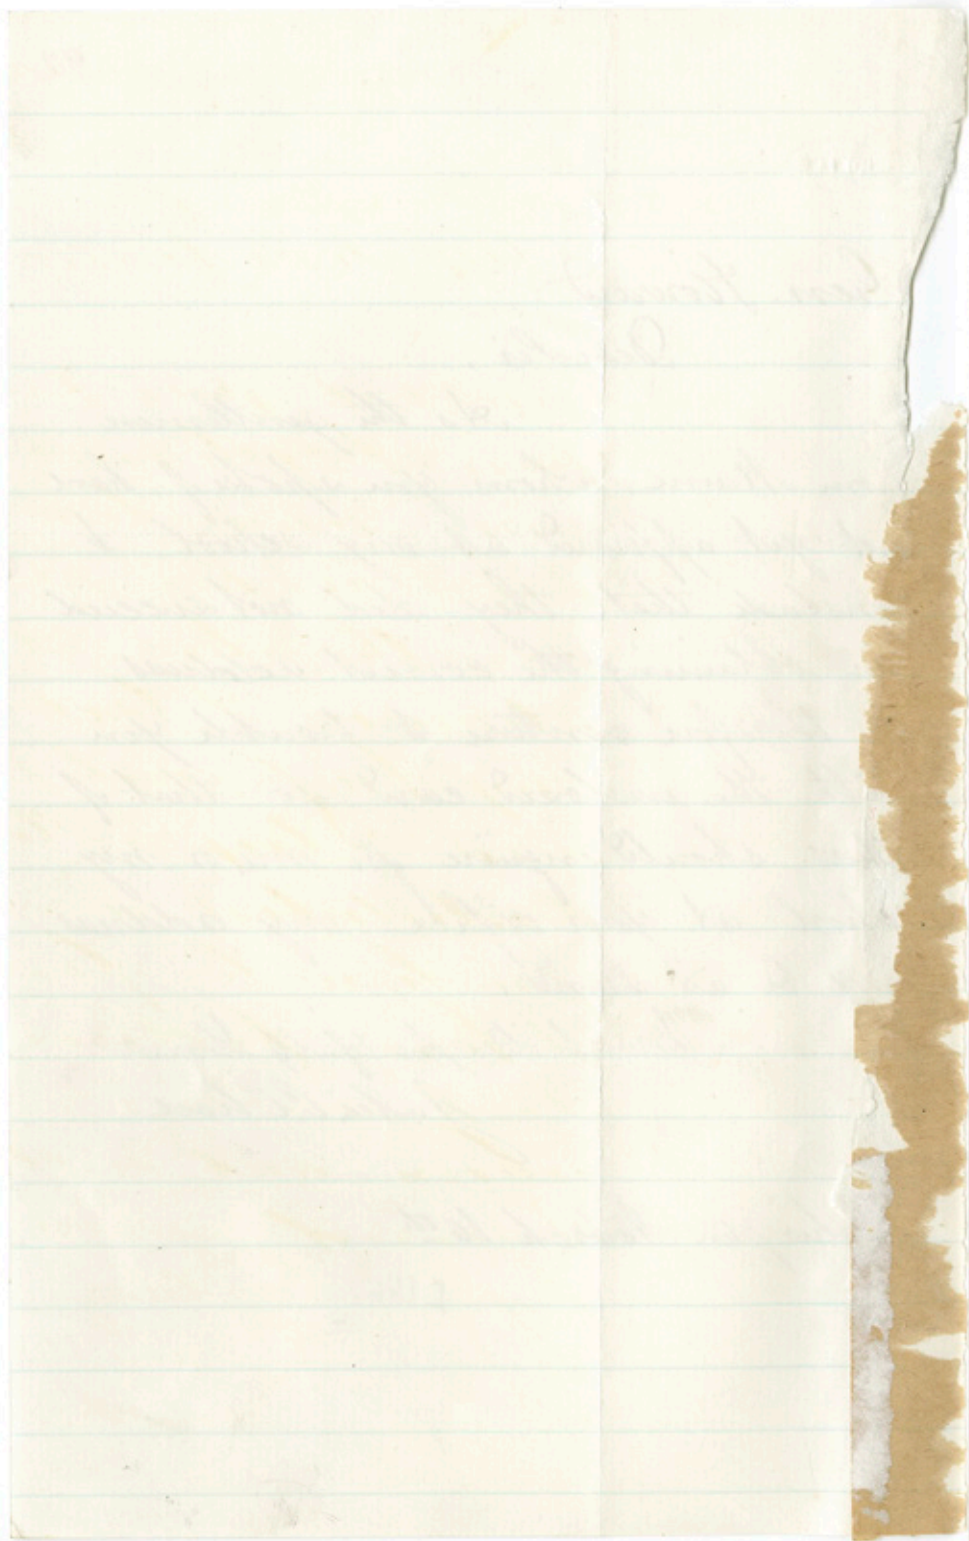

Dear Sir,

As the gentlemen from Maine, whom you spoke of, have not yet appeared at my school, I conclude that they did not succeed in obtaining the correct address. I therefore venture to trouble you with the enclosed card, so that if others, should enquire for me, or my school at your office, my address may be at hand.

Most Respectfully Yours

My Dear General

I am in recognition of your very kind favor of 9th instant for your remembrance, and kind wishes please accept my thanks. — It is with pleasure I look back to my brief military experience, and try to think I contributed a small portion to service which I have followed, with such interest then under whom and with whom I served. I am especially proud of the close of the war (the result of which I never doubted, I had made all my money) that the great struggle must come and troubled for the consequence when I thought that after all we suffered and gone through might be lost through the efforts of a few corrupt politicians, and I award no lip service to those who have so manfully stood up for right - than to those who periled their ~~lives~~ lives in the great struggle for the first time I see daylight - which I trust may brighten on until it becomes a perfect day. To you together and believe me ever yours W. H. Chumbley
