Dear General

I am in receipt of your very kind note in reply to mine concerning mustered-out, which I already knew to have been based upon erroneous information.

I am obliged by your kindness to Colonel Kineman. Tomorrow I shall look out for a letter from him, giving full information about Bureau matters.

A week ago there came a telegram from General Pope, in consequence of which I met him in a day or two at Chattanooga. We reached here Monday last. He is taking hold with vigor, and I think will do his work quite thoroughly and well. He has replaced me in command of the whole State. I

Dear General

I am in receipt of your very kind note in reply to mine concerning matters out, which at least have been looked upon as successful in some times.

I am obliged by your kindness to return them. However I shall not return the letters now, giving full information about the same matter.
A week ago there came a telegram from Gen eral Pope, in consequence of which I was in a state of embarrassment. I was asked to send him the letter but with signs, and I think will be in such quite thoroughly and well. He has been in command of the whole State. I sewed with him a long time, and our relations were always very pleasant, I am glad they promise to continue so. About Bureau matters, he is disposed to give all reasonable latitude, and I think we can make ourselves felt more efficiently for good. But after all, now as when the real necessity is met. Suffrage is working powerfully already to compel fair treatment and will prove the true corrective.

I have not written much while Col. Kineman was in Washington, giving my time to General Pope.

As this work enlarges, and the work of reconstruction enters what I hope will be its final stage, I feel more than ever indebted to you, General, for introducing me to such a field.

Very respectfully

Your obedient servant
Wm. Swaine

Dear Nephew

Yours of to day is received too late to write by this evenings mail. some two weeks ago Wash called on me to write a letter for him to your mother and among other things that he wanted the money due him from Charles & Otis when she returned. after talking with ^{him} some time I got the following that there was due him two hundred dollars, that some time last fall Col Sprague promised to sell him the whelpwell that a week ago he heard that Mr Coffin was trying to buy it & he went to see Mr Sprague for 15. dollars an acre 150 down & the balance in three years. that Mr Berry went with him, that the 20 acres would embrace the pasture & some 400 of wood, give after making enquiries of some of the neighbours & some in our neighbourhood what they would an acre for that pasture I found it was worth about twenty dollars an acre & I sent on the letter Wash said Mr Coffin offered him 24 dollars for the use of it this season others said it was worth more, but he had given the refusal to Coffin Wash said he did not intend to ^{do} anything about a house this year unless Mr Gilmore sold out and that he intended to pay 200 dollars down ~~Laura tells me that Maria~~ I suppose that was consulted no one till he got Mr Berry to go with him & that Maria was anxious for it I wrote Eliza & sent ^{what he desired} I think without expressing an opinion. I should be unwilling now to to give advice upon the subject. Maria's boy Joney is with Mr Stephen Dean. If Wash wants a home in that neighbourhood can he do better.

Laura sends her love says she is waving a carpet & if Ella can send her any old rags they would be very acceptable. ^{Through Mr Pollard} Mr Moss acknowledged the receipt of the shares & has done the honorable thing with respect and esteem
