Charleston, S.C.

Maj. Gen. Howard,
Sir:

While coming from Washington to Richmond about two weeks ago, en route to Charleston, my wife, myself, and our little boy were placed out of the first-class box on the Richmond & Fredericksburg Road. We were travelling with first-class tickets issued from the station office, which secured us first-class everywhere except on that road. This outrage was most unnerving, and rendered extremely so by my wife and our infant child, who were both unwell... owe made to endure this injurious treatment.

Mr. Whipple has given me a letter of introduction to Gen. Porter, your Assistant Commissioner at Richmond, and advised me to pursue this advice and assistance in prosecuting the case, which I intend to do, if possible.

I would be extremely obliged to you for any assistance you will render me. I think it is time the Directors of these Bands should be taught that color ought not to be any bar rier to equal rights for those from whom they expect equal pay.

Very respectfully,

F. L. Carillo.

Maj. Gen. Howen
I hope you will not forget to call on the P.M. General and urge the claim of Mrs. L. B. Bursley for a position in that Dept. If you cannot find time to go in person I would suggest that you send General Randall Mrs. B's letter to you with your endorsement. Mrs. Bursley is certainly deserving a situation at the hands of the Government.
Respectfully yours,
Ald.iring

Gentlemen,

Brother: Enclosed please find five dollars for the Congregational Church Building at Washington, D.C., which may be credited to the Congregational Church, Danbury, N. H. Perhaps you will send a receipt.

Yours cordially,
John A. Bosquez,
Pastor.
P. S. Having written what is on the other side, I sealed my letter, I brought it out of my study & reported my doings to my daughter Mrs. F. H. Murray whose husband, F. H. Murry, is at Washington in the 2d Auditor's office, she having often seen you in the prayer meetings & other meetings during the last Winter & Spring, as Mrs. Murray spoken of you. When I told her what I had done, she inquired if I had sent you a word of encouragement. Feeling condemned for not doing so, I have broken open my envelope for the purpose of saying that we who live back in the country cherish a lively interest in your enterprise. From our hearts thank God that you are carrying it forward in so energetic a manner. If our sympathies, our prayers, or small contributions can give you any rest, we shall feel grateful indeed. I am the minister of the missionary church, living upon a fine hundred dollar salary, with rent, horse-keeping, & a thousand other smaller expenses to pay out of it; if I do not like to tell you that this fine dollar comes out of my own pocket, but it is the truth. It must, however, be credited to this church, for I do not want the public to know who pays it.

While I am lengthening out my postscript, I will add that a beloved son of mine died.

Dear General,

Yours of the 8th inst. was received day before yesterday, I called at Mr. Lyle's office and found he was out of town. I was too unwell to call yesterday, but went this A.M., Mr. Lyle seemed to think you would believe his story sooner than mine, and seemed to feel as though I much understand that I was wholly wrong.

I asked him why he did not answer my note. He said I must not think myself of so much importance that men should drop all other business to answer my note. I told him the reply that came to me, he denied sending any such, and said he would believe the Colored man.
Sooner than me, I told him that was all right— that I had no reason to doubt the Colonel man— seeing that we could not mind the matter, and might get into an unpleasant war of words, I took my hat and walked off, as I got to the door he called to know if that was all I had to say— I told him it was—

He seemed to have the idea that I prized myself of far more importance than other men and that I desired to make trouble with him— I do not feel that I have wronged the man of all— nor do I think it is my custom to treat people unquently— Hoping this may be satisfactory,

To Apper— I am Very Respectfully

50

Sir,

I received your letter this morning acknowledging the receipt of the amount for the benefit of the Harvard University. In some way I received the impression that it was for that institution you were in need of funds, but in looking over your letter I find I must have mistaken that it was the Church I would take the responsibility of saying that the contributions will be perfectly satisfied to leave with your judgment the use that shall be made of it.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
