New York, Oct. 23rd. 1867.

Major Gen. W. C. Howard,

I enclose a slip from the Journal of Elizabeth, the editor of which Mr. Howe I introduced to you. The portraiture is not otherwise than pleasant to you, while the sympathy expressed for you on account of the brief attendance may be comforting.

I find that several ministers omitted your name from fear of disappointment. One clergyman bound up in the U. S. Presby'ty Board of Education among the Headmen would not read the Notice. The Evening Bulletin of Tuesday, spoke high of yourself and the meeting, but blamed the people for non-attendance, and expressed the hope of seeing you again in Elizabeth and then of doing you suitable honor.

I am laboring to bring up the present needs $400 to $1000.

Respectfully,

Edmund Colton, M.

P.S. Many express to me deep regret that they did not hear of your expected presence at the meeting!!

Dear Mr. Clowes,

I am requested by some of my brethren to write to you and express whether you think General Howard could be desired to deliver a lecture in our city this winter. I would like to secure his services for the latter part of December. They hardly expect that you were informed of his arrival though you were informed of his kind. Though you were informed of his kind through persons of better ability. Now, if you think there is any hope will you accept the kindness to write to him and anyone.

I arrived at home last week and am quite well having enjoyed a cool manner and feel abundantly proud for all the trouble suffered. I find my church in great condition. Yours ever to write for

Yours,

Sir, Howard,

It has been discovered that the fire building recently treated in Richmond, for the use of the first Normal School in Virginia, cannot be properly prepared for the reception of pupils until a certain blank space on one of its walls is filled with a picture of—

—Gen. A. Howard.

Should it be in your power to facilitate the needful preparations for opening the school, in the way suggested, such a picture will find a fitting frame, need ready hands to transfer it to its place in the new building, if sent to

Dear O. O. Howard

Dear Sir:

It is requested and desired that you will deliver the welcome address for us on Tuesday evening next 20' west, at the rooms of the association.

Bro. Browne has already mentioned the subject to you, I presume, and I should be pleased to have a line from you in order that there may be no mistake.

Yours truly,

Major General O.O. Howard

Sir,

My legs strong enough to permit me attending to my former duties in the Department. Can you inform me if I am to be retained or not.

For the past two weeks and better, I have been up in the Mountains in Loudoun County, Virginia. There is no colored school within several miles of the town where I was staying, Middleburg. The colored people want one there very much; it would be very beneficial to my health for me to reside there! I should prefer teaching a school there too, remaining in the West, if the salary could be made from forty to fifty dollars per month and house rent.

Can come up if you wish it.

Major General O.O. Howard
