Dear Sir,

In answer to your call of June last for aid in building a Congregational Church at Washington I enclose five dollars a contribution from our little Sabbath School assembling in a log school house here in the wilderness. Our school containing from twenty to thirty parents and children is made up of different denominations who are not all equally disposed for building up orthodox society. Our poverty may be our excuse for contributing so small a sum. Our place of worship is the same of our Sabbath school. At present we have orthodox preaching once in six weeks and Methodist once in eight weeks. Your brother B.B. spent a few weeks with us a few years ago to whom we became very much attached.

Yours with Esteem

Jesse Craig S.S.
Necoma Terr., April 10, 1868.

Sir:

Will you please to inform me, at your leisure, whether there is an organization, called the Freedmen's aid society, duly and legally constituted and incorporated under the laws of any State or the District of Columbia, so that it could enforce the payment of a legacy properly bequeathed to a society of that name, not locating it.

If so, please also inform me with whom I can correspond on the subject, and much oblige.

I am, very respectfully,

Your Obd. Servit

David Murray, Esq.
