General.

You will please pardon me for addressing you, but as I contemplate publishing a book entitled "Three Years in the Freedmen's Bureau", I deem it proper to ask whether you would have any objections or not.

The work will contain nothing but facts, showing the onerous and delicate duties that an officer of that much belied and berated institution had to perform, and the many Substantial benefits resulting therefrom, not only to the late slaves, but to a very large proportion of the white population of the Southern States, also fully showing up, not only the difficulties, but the dangers, attending Officers in the faithful discharge of their manifold duties, who endeavored to carry out the law of Congress both in spirit and in letter, as well as your instructions.

I have the honor to be Your Obedient Servant.

We have the honor to send you herewith copies of our little Magazine

You will see its object

It is meeting with very encouraging success, and is the means of assisting very many worthy disabled soldiers, and the families of those who died for their Country

Knowing the great interest you have in your old soldiers, who like yourself bear living testimony to their devotion to Country, and feeling satisfied you would gladly do anything to aid them, we would most respectfully request, if you approve of our work - its object &c you give us your endorsement

Munson House
Brooklyn May 23 '68

My Dear General.

Since
The news of the Chicago nominations the good people of Brooklyn have a strong desire to see and greet Mr Colfax.
I think the desire should be gratified and am sure Mr Colfax would be satisfied with his reception.

I would suggest to that in no way can it be done with more delicacy and propriety than by his delivering a Temperance

Address before the Plymouth Temperance Society either in Plymouth Church or the Academy of Music.
In either place the house will be full.

In this way we give a greeting to Rev
S. H. Tyng Jr and Plymouth Church was packed to its utmost.

Mr Beecher joins heartily in this suggestion and request and should Mr Colfax consent his friends will have the satisfaction of meeting him. Our good cause of Temperance will be strengthened and good will be done in the great cause of

The Republic,

Of course we leave the time to his convenience and it hardly necessary for me to add that the money matter will be satisfactory.

It just occurs to me that with such a grand affair as this can be judicious management be made, we can get a benefit out of it for your Church in which case of course your must come with him.

Now my good friend will you talk this matter over with Mr Colfax and drop me a line stating the result?

With kind regards

To Mrs Howard and your children

I am your friend to the constitution

Should you desire a beautiful place, either on speculation or otherwise, I know this place is suitable for either.

My desire to go south is the only reason for selling; as I have made considerable improvements such as vineyard, peach orchard & a variety of buildings.

I will sell low for cash; or otherwise an arrangement could be made to let a mortgage of $8000 remain 18 months, the time for its termination.

The neighborhood is good, if they are opposed to you buying any property in this neighborhood.

I am home at any <sup>time</sup> & would be pleased to show you the place

Commissioner, Bureau P. O. & A.

Washington, D. C.

General

The report of Capt. Burbaker dated the 8th inst, and furnished to me direct from your office on the 21st instant having been the first information I received of the charge of Meif Deering and believing that it was not the intention of the Major General Commissioner to deprive me of the privilege accorded to the greatest criminal, that of being heard in his own defence. I respectfully submit the following statement of the facts, supported by affidavits, which would have been submitted to Capt. Burbaker, had not his investigation been conducted, ex parte, at Harper's Ferry. The principal statement, that I placed a skeleton in a coffin to frighten the teachers and freedmen, is not true in fact, and stated fairly

The first of these is the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy of non-interference. This is due to the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy of noninterference. This is due to the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry will, I think, be considered, if not commendable, at least harmless and all the circumstances considered a friendly jest. The coffin was one of a number belonging to the Bureau for the burial of deceased indigent freedpeople, which Miss Dearing knew were stored in the building. The skull (there was no skeleton) was placed in the coffin by Dr. Turner, lately a Surgeon of the Bureau here - The teacher, my wife and myself board together, and our relations are cordial and intimate - At the house numerous practical jokes, on both sides, have been played, and received in the most friendly spirit, and this was thoughtlessly done on the spur of the moment, with no intention or idea of seriously alarming Miss Dearing. As to "terrifying the freedmen" not one to this hour, to my knowledge is aware of it. It was at the afternoon session of the school, and before Miss Dearing left, that she might not suffer the least uneasiness, she was told all about it by Mr. Terry, my clerk.

Had it been my desire (as it was farthest from my thoughts) to terrify those with whom I lived in such friendly relations, whatever she might have suspected, she would never have known it was a joke. Since these ladies have been here, I appeal to them, without fear of contradiction, if I have not used every exertion in my power to aid them in successfully performing their duties - My sympathies are entirely with the colored people in their efforts to obtain the rudiments of knowledge, and as an officer of the Bureau, and as a man, I have been cordially with them, in this work - I say this to contradict the idea, which must naturally be entertained from Capt. Pembroke's report, that I am not friendly to the freedmen and the cause of education - While I admit that under different circumstances, the act with which I have been charged, would be culpable, I respectfully submit that supposing from our intimate social relations, that I was merely joking with a friend, that it would be taken in the same spirit, and could not possibly have any serious result to anyone, it was at most, an act of harmless impudence. I am also charged with having "given orders to discontinue the use of the schoolroom for religious purposes". Perhaps I should content myself with the affidavit of the Rev. Mr. Dungey, to whose said every extreme on my part, I have been in unsuccessfully performing their duties - I have to obtain the evidence of knowledge, and as an evidence of the success, and as a means of having been indisposed with them in the work - I say this because the very nature of the work is naturally contrary to the law of the world, and I have been furnished to the friends in the course of the work - While I admit that the work is a very difficult one, the work is not an easy one, and I have been obliged to be especially patient that suffering from the difficult social relations, that I have necessarily found that it would be better in the same spirit and could not possibly have any further result any more, I was at first a set of numbers and denomination Meik Deering belongs as a full refutation of that charge, but desiring that the Major General Commissioner may comprehend all the facts; I beg to state that a bitter sectarian spirit is manifest in all the colored churches in this town. The advent of the present teachers who are looked upon as the representatives of the Free Baptist denomination, and who it was alleged, were trying to organize a new church, pointed them out as the most dangerous to all the others.

Complaints were received at my office that the teachers were trying to alienate children from the church of their fathers. Prayer meetings were held in the schoolroom twice a week. The Minister of the Methodist Church called to remonstrate against the teachers and ministers of the new church for having induced many of his Sunday School scholars to join their own: but yet I did not interfere, believing that prudence and the best interests of all the free people would be served most by not as an official, taking sides in a sectarian quarrel -

On the last of January 1850 scholars were reported by the teachers as attending school [illegible]

In March 183 attended, showing a loss of 37. at a time when the attendance should be large.

It being evident the school could not survive long at that rate, I took occasion to explain to the teacher, while on a daily visit to my wife's room that if she continued her prayer meetings in the school room in view of the then existing prejudices of a very large majority of the people, she would soon have no scholars, and in order to disarm the opposition, I stated that it would be preferable on prayer meeting days to hold such meetings, in the room used for such purpose, and that children only who desired, should be invited to attend.

After a full exchange of sentiments on the subject, she said on leaving that she "was glad we had a talk as she had not seen it in that light before." In the conversation, I spoke with candor and sincerity believing that apart from the daily prayer, no other exciting causes should be introduced into a public school, especially on a subject which had already caused bitter animosities, was fast dividing the people, and reducing the attendance at school. The school furniture here

 government has been unable to maintain a stable exchange rate since the war. This has led to a general rise in prices and a fall in the value of the pound sterling. The second is the fact that the government has been unable to raise sufficient funds to meet its obligations. This has led to a general rise in interest rates and a fall in the value of the pound sterling. The third is the fact that the government has been unable to reduce its budget deficit. This has led to a general rise in taxes and a fall in the value of the pound sterling. The fourth is the fact that the government has been unable to reduce its public expenditure. This has led to a general rise in the cost of living
 pound sterling. The fifth is the fact that the government has been unable to reduce its foreign debt. This has led to a general rise in the cost of borrowing
 pound sterling. The sixth is the fact that the government has
 inflation. This has led to a general rise in prices and a fall in the value of the pound sterling. The seventh is the fact that the government has
 unemployment. This has led to a
 pound sterling. The eighth is
 foreign trade deficit. This has led to a general rise in the cost of living and a fall in the value of the pound sterling. The ninth
 public sector. This has led to a
 pound sterling. The tenth is the fact that the government has
 pound sterling.

is the property of the colored people, many of whom were opposed to the teacher's prayer meetings. This conversation constitutes the only "order" or suggestion to discontinue the use of the schoolrooms for religious purposes. And here I also submit to the Major General Commissioner that as one of the schoolrooms was at the exclusive service of the Free Baptist Association of which Miss Dering is a member, and in which room she taught a S. S. class. That by furnishing another room, not more than ten feet distant, to teachers of the same denomination, when either room was sufficiently large to hold the largest attendance, it would seem to be a just cause of complaint, by the other denominations, against me, for using my official position in the interest of that denomination only.

In conclusion I respectfully submit the enclosed affidavits and endorsement of Miss Dering in support of the following propositions, To-wit: By the endorsement of Miss Dering on paper marked "A" and affidavit of Mrs. Jerry Smith, Capt. Bunker did not proceed to Weymouth as that Capt John A. McDowell Officer of the Bureau R.

F. & A. L. has allowed me at all times, to occupy one of the School rooms in which to hold religious services as I desired. The room to which I refer is in the same building occupied by himself, another room in which, is used for a Colored School.

My predecessor was also afforded the same facilities and I believe everything consistent with an impartial administration of his duties, was, and still continues to be done by that Officer to advance the Cause of education and religion. I do not know myself, and never heard any of the Freedpeople say that he tried by any means to frighten them, As their Minister I should have heard it from them if he had done so.

 occupied an office on the same floor with the use of deceased freedmen were stored in the same building and directly over my office when a short time since a skull which was used by me for illustrations, was placed for safe keeping in one of the Coffins by myself, and with some articles of clothing belonging to me, were placed behind a door in the office until opportunity presented itself to take them away. The spectacle was not by any means frightful, as Coffins are exposed to full view on the floor above, and this one was removed for the purpose stated by me to retain the articles placed therein until taken away.

Taxpayers in referring to their property should describe it by number of Square and Lot.

I received a communication informing me that the lots advertised for sale for nonpayment of Taxes were the property of the 1st Congregational Church. By reference to the books of this Office I find that Subs 12, 13, 14 & 15 are in the name of O. O. Howard as Trustee for said Church which by law are exempt from taxation, but subs 16, 17, & 18 are in the name of simply of Oliver O. Howard

Very Respectfully
John C. Clary
