Genl O. O. Howard,

My Dear Sir

About the time of your departure from Washington for the South I addressed a letter to you in reference to the interests of some freedmen on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in Caroline Co. as I should have given my pleasure if it had had your attention as I have not heard from you I fear the letter has not reached you

Gen. O. O. Howard
Sir.

As the temperance cause is dear to every lover of liberty and mankind, and as you are one of its most decided champions, permit me to propose what I deem a new mode of effecting a permanent reform in this respect.

Nearly all efforts hitherto to prevent intemperance have been through moral suasion on adults, and through laws partially or wholly forbidding the sale of intoxicating drinks. While these efforts have produced much good, and their champions have earned themselves with lasting renown, yet as all will admit, the evil of intemperance if not on the increase is at least frightfully prevalent, therefore to effect any general or permanent reform, some other mode not hitherto adopted, must be tried, which may hold out a hope of permanent success. As we have acted almost wholly on adults, I now propose to act on the young, and school them over to taste the accursed thing.

For this purpose I propose to hang up in every public school, a School Temperance Pledge, to be signed by all the scholars, boys and girls, as soon as they shall be able to write a fair hand, say at ten or twelve years of age, and over. This pledge may be engraved on copper say 16 X 24 inches, and may read as follows:

School Temperance Pledge.

We the subscribers, scholars, voluntarily pledge ourselves, never to drink anything that will intoxicate, nor to use tobacco in any form; God being our witness.

This pledge may have a neat cut representing a boy and girl signing it, and be framed and hung up in every school house, or school room, to be signed at any time by scholars.

A neat Ticket may also be prepared, with the same Pledge and cut upon it, with the words Reward of Merit across one end, the ticket also to be signed by the scholar, and witnessed by the teacher, to be presented to the scholar, as a constant reminder of the pledge of Temperance.

No scholar is to be compelled to sign the pledge, it is to be done

Dear General:

Your favor of the 5th came in my absence. I now say in answer to your inquiry "we will cheerfully do it."

Permit me to suggest that we should like to have you make your address turn as exclusively, as you can, on the work among the Freedmen: its necessity, arising from the condition of the people, their need of it, mentally, morally and spiritually, the inability of the South to do the work, if they would, their unwillingness to do it if they could, the readiness of the colored people to welcome our labors, the bearing of the work, if well done, on the interest and prosperity of the whole country, &c &c, with any remarks you may please to make on the importance of making it Christian, and any commendations you may choose to give of what we have done; with your own ideas of the magnitude and importance of the whole, and especially of crowding it forward the coming year.

Yours very truly,

General:

Reports from two different and reliable sources have come to my ear, that some Claim Agents in this city find that by my removal as Disbursing Officer here and by effecting a change to suit them they may make $20,000. or more out of the Colored Soldiers claims yet to be paid.

I have every reason to believe (from these reports) that these Agents have the confidence of one of our, heretofore, most trusted friends. Judge B.

I will not now enter into any details. I have taken the liberty to address this letter to you General as I thought you should be informed first, for perhaps you might be first approached, and too by those whom we all have trusted most. (God forgive me if I misjudge any one.) But might it not be possible that the interest of the poor and ignorant is at state.

If we do our whole duty we merit nothing. I have many times thought that perhaps I was too rigorous with these Claim Agents, but nearly every day convinces me in another belief, that if I have been diligent in my duty it has been to the injury of the claimants and not to ^{that of} the Agents.

I have addressed nobody but you, General, on this subject.

Whenever my services are no longer needed I wish to be out, but I do not want to be dismissed from the primary efforts of any such coalition as I have referred to.

Very truly

Dear Sir

I delivered your message to my Brother, tho' not able to give him a very precise statement of your object, and he desires me to say that he is sure the Presbyterian ministers with whom he is associated here will be happy to confer with you at any time that may suit your convenience. They hold a meeting every Monday, unless called from the city by one of the ecclesiastical meetings usually occurring in October.
If you will signify your wish to meet them at any time, due notice will be given. My Brother however would be (he thinks) well

I deeply regret that I

Dear Sir

I saw Mr Tullock - in reference to giving some employment to Mr Libbets - and he has nothing here, as his documents, are all printed & nearly all ready to send. and he cannot employ Mr T. as a lecturer for Penn., as he only recommends, to the ^{Chairman of} State Com., and he employs.

This, he said he would do, if you would write him a short note also recommending it, and will 28 also give ten dollars towards making up a purse for him to start with.

I hope you can give him this assistance. I think Mr. Riddle (the Lawyer), who has heard him speak, will endorse your recommendation.

I could not find a place for the Young Man (Son, and Soldier) at the Cathedral, or the Mayor's Office. He is a very modest temperate and good young man.
He is working energetically to find employment.

Mag. Gen. Howard,

My dear Sir,

I received the Chronicle containing your address on the subject of your recent visit to the South. I read it with great interest & gratification. It gives me a ^{rather} more encouraging view of the state of things than I had come to entertain. Still, you afford evidence enough of the disloyal spirit that prevails. I fear that the misconduct of our own men, officials both of higher & lower grades, & of those who have gone from us to improve their fortunes through the misfortunes of the South, have contributed much to the ill-will they cherish towards us. I have heard from what I supposed competent authority of the insistent ^{of subordinate officials} tone towards many positions in New Orleans - union men too, that was enough to begit a feeling of disgust & even of hatred towards a government administered by northern men. I fear that during the war some of our highest officers in New Orleans did not help the cause of loyalty. In case the election ends well in the success of the Republican party, & the abominable influence, which has been at work to foment disunion & rebellion, shall be checked - as you say, self-interest will work a change. Allow me to say, that I was very much gratified by the tone of your address & think your visit must have done good.

The papers inform us that you have been invited to the Presidency of Union College. Whether there, or wherever you may be, allow me to express the hopes that you may be the instrument of ever increasing good.

Very truly respectfully Yours,

Dr. Mason is in New York, so that we could not make out all the pa-self are going on, God willing, on Monday and will attend to them im-

With respect to the sale of the for us to have special authority from the Board, or that we should at least consult the Board at large, as they may conclude to hold the property for awhile.

We thank you most sincerely for your very kind and generous offer, to act as our agent gratuitously, and will communicate with you on the subject, as soon as we can have a conference.

My dear Otis

A favor invitation to visit you is so cordial that I find it difficult not to accept it on the spot - yet for the present I must say that I do not see my way clear to leave home - Aside from office interests we are rather tied up with sickness at home - Callie & the baby both being somewhat out of order - the latter teething - beside that we have a friend staying with us, a daughter of Mr Chas Gould of New York who is suffering from a fever which is not only very painful but very alarming - I should therefore rather postpone the visit for a time - There is nothing I should like better to do - and I know it would be of great benefit to Helen - to get away from the cares of the house -

We hear today that Mrs Smith has rented her house & will return in about a week when we shall feel freer to leave home -

I wrote to Chas a few days ago about a man for your building concern - the party wants to know whether you have taken his case into consideration at all -

With many thanks for your kind note & love to Lizzie and the children

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE
"Associated Western Literary Societies,"

DUBUQUE, IOWA, May 15, 1867.

Dear Sir:

The "A. W. L. S." is an association of about one hundred of the leading Literary and Lecture Societies of the West contained in the circle embraced by Cleveland, Ohio, Pittsburgh, Pa., Cincinnati, Ohio, St. Louis, Mo., Lawrence, Kan., Des Moines, Iowa, St. Paul, Minn., Oshkosh, Wis., Saginaw and Detroit, Michigan, and Toledo, Ohio, formed for the purpose of joint action and mutual benefit (both to themselves and the Lecturers) in the matter of obtaining Lecturers, &c., &c. By this combined action, they trust to become enabled to obtain the very best talent, by offering to the Lecturers regular routes, of greater or less extent, as the case may be, thereby making it more of an object for them to come "West" than has previously been the case, when only detached engagements could be offered to them, and those often very widely apart. This association, it is hoped, will be of especial benefit to the smaller and "weaker" societies among us, by enabling them to obtain Lecturers whom they otherwise could not hope to obtain, as many Lecturers will lecture for them in an extended course, at somewhat reduced figures, when else they could not afford to do so.

The particular advantages we offer to Lecturers consist in the fact that, instead of dealing with several persons in making their arrangements, they deal in this case with only one, (the Cor. Sec. of the "A. W. L. S.") who will arrange their entire routes, giving the exact day and date for each particular lecture, laying them out so that they may give the greatest number of lectures with the least possible loss of time, &c., &c., thus saving to Lecturers a very great amount of trouble in the shape of correspondence, or the expense of employing an Agent, if they have been in the habit of doing so.

Of course, some Lecturers receive more applications from the Association than others, and the Cor. Sec. is instructed to apply only for those Lecturers receiving five applications or upwards; although he will, by particular request, apply for any of those receiving a less number.

It is understood, that in applying for Lecturers, they are to come, if at all, some time during the regular Lecture Season, or between the first of November and the fifteenth of April. When Lecturers cannot come within that period, but can come at a different time, they will please say so distinctly, in which case their propositions will be submitted to the different constituent Societies.

 Lecturers, in their answers or applications, will state their lowest terms per lecture, which terms must cover their traveling and hotel expenses and every other expense connected therewith; they will also state the exact time they can start, how many weeks or months they can devote to the West, how many Lectures they can give each week, also give the titles, in full, of their different Lectures:—in short, they will please make their answers as concise and definite as possible, to save time and trouble to the Corresponding Secretary.

Each Lecturer will be paid at the close of each Lecture, by the Society before which he has lectured, the price previously agreed upon with the Cor. Sec. of the "A. W. L. S.," which price, as above stated, is to cover ALL expenses of whatever nature.

There is a wide field for improvement, both intellectually and physically, in the Great West, and its people are ready and anxious to hear first rate Lecturers, and are willing to pay for them; such can do good here, and we sincerely hope that all of those to whom we apply will consent to come, even at the sacrifice of a little personal ease and comfort.

The expenses of the Association are paid by assessment on the Societies. A resolution was passed at the Convention held at Chicago on the 8th inst. requesting the Secretary to inform Lecturers that he would receive a compensation equal to 5 per cent. on the gross receipts of the Lectures in all cases where this arrangement would be perfectly satisfactory. Several of the leading Lecturers of the country have signified a willingness to assist in defraying the expenses of the Society. It is optional with the Lecturer, however, as to whether he shall pay this amount or not. If convenient for you to visit the West during the coming Autumn or Winter, please write me at your earliest convenience.

Respectfully,

C. L. TORBERT,

Cor. Sec. A. W. L. S., Dubuque, Iowa.
