For its something we have long been wanting to train the young minds, the right and true way how to live. We have taking great pleasure in informing you that we have selected your name for the head of our division. We did not make choice of you for name only, but for honor and the confidence we put in you. Knowing what you have done, and we believe that you are still doing for our race. We believe you to be a true Christian and a real lover of
