Dear Genl

Your name - given me yesterday, at your Carriage - was marked "OK" by the Auditor
- Thank You

And now I require your name to the enclosed Form "2" - Oct 31-62 - You was in Command of the Divⁿ at that time, and, of course, was the proper Officer to approve, as it was your Divⁿ "Ambulance Corps" - I have a regular transfer of these men from Lt McMahon. These men so transferred & reported on the enclosed Form 2 were with me during the month of October, at which time they were discharged & enlisted men detained. As I gave these men Certificates to draw their pay elsewhere, making no papers - "Cash papers" - myself - this Form 2 was not presented for your name - but it is now required by the Officer in order to complete my papers on file in his Office. If you will be kind enough to sign the form, and return it to me - I will be gratified. It is the last paper required to close my accounts

Gen O. A. Howard

Sir

I had the pleasure, yesterday of an interesting (to me) interview with your respected bro: Genl. C.
St. Howard who is now on a visit to our State. He arrived Saturday night, and on Sunday yesterday addressed Sunday our Colored C. K. and at night preached to a large house in the Colored Methodist Church Several white Clergy men residents of the City occupied the Pulpit with him.

I cordially bid his arrival in Texas in the pursuit of good things - religiously & morally of the Freedmen of Texas.
Can he return to his mountain home - next Saturday after which I will write you more at length (over)

On a political status in Tex.
I wish to say a few words Confidentially. We are not yet prepared for reannexation or admittance to U.S. govt. The rebel element is too strong. To permit the July election to be held in July would be to throw the loyal element of the State again under the control of the Democracy.

The loyal men of Tex. have no confidence in Jack Hamilton. Outside of his drunken habits he is a wholly unreliable man. No party has any confidence in his true patriotism. He is emphatically a Demagogue!

Gentl. you have done much for Texas much for which we ought to feel grateful but if we can aid, in any way, in saving us from a United States Governor and from precipitation into the gov't before we are prepared you will greatly enhance our obligations of gratitude to you.

I enclose a com in the form of wh you might see in some newspaper of your choice

have marked it 'private'. In that letter, I set forth some of the wrongs alluded to above in this letter. I sent it by a person expressly to leave it at your private dwelling, so that it should not fall into any ^{other} foreigner's hands. In the P.M. asked for an interview. The next afternoon I received it from your bureau with a few lines stating that you were absent. It appeared to me that if it was opened by accident, it should have been allowed to remain until your return.

Soon after your return I called and found you alone, and had a pleasant interview with you. You talked right and acted right by my nephew.

I was pleased to see in the Record of last week that Mr. Clark of Hartford had given you $20,000 more. I have namesakes in Northampton. One John Clark a President of a Bank, who is said to own the whole of it, who the

General:

The object of this present is to state that ever since the spring of '67 when Congress passed the act making freedmen voters, I have felt confident that your brother, Charles, was not the proper person to occupy the position in your bureau, to which you appointed him. That if he was an honest man, he was constantly the dupe of copperheads who were working to defeat the reconstruction measures of Congress, under the influence of the White House.

I sought ~~for~~ an interview with you several times, to explain the wrongs done by your attorney A. K. Brown, towards Dr. Lockwood, which could never have been done unless your brother had been duped, to assist Brown in ^{his} fraudulent transactions.

Believing that in investigating the matter you would have perceived that the whole blame was attributable to your brother. Who if he had been disposed to do right, would have paid the amount out of his own pocket if he could not get ^{it} out of Brown.

I was arriving in Boston about the time it took place, and nothing kept me here but a wish to see right done & further wrongs prevented from being carried out against Dr. Lookwood and you will remember that shortly after I had a fall down a back stair way, which injured me very much and when I was picked up by the colored man who directed me down the stair way, I was supposed to be dead for some ten minutes or more, but by his perseverance in rubbing me I was restored to consciousness, through the kind providence of God, who had something more for me to do here before going home.

It seemed as if every thing was done in ^{the} ~~winter~~ ^{and spring} of 1868 to defeat the Republicans in the June election, by the working of the white House and of those working under your brother. They even tore down the barracks back of the Capitol, to remove 80 colored voters from the 5th Ward and when any one went to your brother to remonstrate with him about the small pittance he allowed my nephew, he would tell them that if he was ^{not} satisfied he might leave.

When you ~~were~~ gone on your tour South I called at your bureau to expostulate ⁱⁿ ~~on~~ behalf of my nephew, and I was treated very disrespectfully. After your return I called and had a few minutes interview with you. A few days after I called again with the purpose of requesting a settlement of my nephew's accounts according to your promise but was refused an interview. I then wrote you a letter intending to part ^{yearly} appropriated $50,000 to build an Asylum in that place for mutes, and it is said he is worth from a half million to a Million of dollars, has no children and is a very pious man.

I should ^{think} you might lay before him what Mr. David Clark of Houlton has done for you and thus open his heart towards your cause. I would be pleased if he would give you the whole of it.

I am hoping soon to leave here for the Summer as my folks at home are complaining at my staying away so long, and I should be pleased to do anything for the cause you are vindicating so nobly.

I should be pleased to have a private interview with you, as soon as possible, hoping to be able to explain things to your entire satisfaction.

Yours in Christ,

Isaac Clark

I am desirous of obtaining a situation as day Inspector of the Customs in this Port and take the liberty of asking you if you can consistently to give me a recommendation for the place. By my absence of more than three years during the war I lost my business connections have not as yet been able to regain them and am at present in rather straitened circumstances. My foot is nearly as strong as before Gettysburg and my bodily health is good. Having done the country some service I feel that I could serve the Government as efficiently as many of the present incumbents who kept at a safe distance while we were "in face of the enemy".

The Secretary of the Treasury could order me at once to the place, or the U. S. Senators from our State would exert considerable influence in obtaining it for me. The Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives requested by letter that an incumbent be retained and he is retained.

I, though being a good Republican, have little or no political influence and do not know how to reach these parties, nor if it is necessary to reach them, be kind enough, if you can, to advise me.

Very respectfully
