Manchester N.H. Jan'y 5th 1870.

General -

I again take the liberty to address you. I am still confined in jail, having been in confinement over eight months.

Last October I went before the U.S. Court. plead "Guilty" and received the lightest sentence the law permitted - two years in jail in this city.

I have been told that if I would apply to the President, stating how long I have been in confinement - of the strange determination of my heart to let that which placed me here be the last office of my life - of my long and faithful service in the Army, and the loss of one arm in battle, how I have repented of the past, and the anxiety I have to prove that I am not lost to all that is right and honorable that he would release me by a Pardon.

I know I have repented of the past, and that I have the forgiveness of God for yielding to sin and temptation, and I am fully resolved in all the future to lead an honest, devoted Christian life. You have been kind - very kind - to me in the past. I know how favorably you have looked upon ^{me}, even speaking about me in your lectures, and of your disappointment and sorrow at my fall. And now I appeal to you to help me to a pardon, and I pledge you shall never have reason, for a moment to regret it. If you will go personally before President Grant and use your influence so as to secure my release I will send you fifty dollars to be used by you in building the new church, in which you have so deep an interest, or for any other purpose - public or private - which in your judgment you may think best.

Could you know how I have suffered during these long, sad, many months I am sure you would not refuse my humble request.

The letters from Gov. Harriman, Ex-Gov. Smith, Senator Patterson, endorsed by Senator Craig, Hon. A. J. Stevens M.C. and other well known public men, which I had in Washington last spring are, I suppose now in the hands of the N.H. Dist Atty for the U.S.

My devoted, and noble wife joins with me in making this appeal to you. She has suffered much, and yet she has full confidence in me and daily prays for my release.

I have an offer of steady, useful, and honorable employment as soon as I am released. And I am anxious to begin to try to again gain a good name in the world as soon as possible with the new year which has just commenced.

General Howard,
My dear Sir.
It is necessary for me to leave ^{for} Baltimore on Saturday the 8th, and so I see I shall miss you altogether. But I do not recollect whether I gave you Miss Marwede's address which is 19 Ann Street New York, Office of the New York Times, where she is at present engaged as Associate Editor because the paper enabled her to diffuse her ideas among persons who only read German - She has therefore taken the place till she can go into practical operation at Cornell University which will be as soon as the stock of $5000 is attached to her. But meantime

She will be of value as a counsellor to any who may wish to establish such Horticultural schools elsewhere - & as you are often in New York you may like to see her - I wholly agree with her that with respect to Education all over the country, the great disordina-tum is to mingle the indiscriminate elements - The mere acquisition of book knowledge without ^{any} moral discipline that the application of knowledge to practical work involves has been found in our New England cities to have actually a demoralizing effect - exciting selfish ambition - instead of dev of exerting an elevating influence! Work must however be taught together with the most liberal studies, or it will not be able to take rank with the more professor of Science - Miss Marwedel's plan proposes to fit women for beautiful family life & to enable them to enjoy it by producing the means which Horticulture can do, especially in the vicinity of large cities where the demand for small vegetables & flowers is very far from being fulfilled.

I hope to see Miss Susan neighbour - & who I

The undersigned, a Committee appointed by the Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Respectfully represent that a Suitable Building is necessary for the denomination named, in which all of God's people may worship, and that the members thereof, are unable of themselves, to accomplish so desirable a work, and, while the citizens generally have contributed as liberally as could reasonably be expected, more help is needed.

Dear Brother

By Lizzie's letter to Kitty I find Dickson & King have been troubling you about Marble's free account. I am unwilling to pay it for two reasons first because I am not morally bound to do so - second because I am not legally bound.

I suppose they tried to get it of Marble as long as he was to be found and then as a last resort come to me - I answered their letter promptly and told them I could not pay Marble's bill - I lost some $200 cash by him & that is all I intend or ought to lose - They must

Sir: I beg you will pardon the liberty I take in addressing you thus directly; but as I am about to make a vigorous and well sustained effort in Boston Mass. in behalf of the educational work here, and as friends there have urged me to secure a letter of endorsement of this work from you, I cannot refrain from soliciting that you make as hearty endorsement of this Institute as you feel justified in making and address it to the friends of our Cause in the North - permitting me to make use of it - sending it to me, to that end, and thus I am confident that a great good ^{can} be accomplished

I believe I can count, General, upon your most kindly response to this.

Primit me, at the risk of seeming to be conceited, to remind you that I have here undertaken not only the whole management and up building of this work but also nearly as much personal responsibility in the way of securing support for it at the North as the whole Am. Missy. Assn. which holds the property and is entitled to the fullest benefit of its reputation.

I say this only to show my true position and to excuse my importunity in urging that you write for me as strong a letter as you can, some time this week as the Campaign opens next week.

Gen. O.O. Howard

Esteemed Sir.

It afforded me great pleasure to have met you this morning, at the National Bank, not only because of your cordial welcome to my humble self, at the time, but because it renewed in my memory the goodwill and kindness you extended me on my first arrival in this City - when I needed a Friend in my misfortune. I have not forgotten the past, dear General; but, I still regret, that, under your generous auspices I did not succeed in realizing the object of my mission to Washington City: - namely - the purchase of a theatrical "Wardrobe", - which would have enabled me to have earned my way in my coveted profession - clearly, independently, and successfully.

To-day, dear General, I am scarcely better off than when you first saw me; and, until about a month ago, I have endured great suffering and want.

Mr. Huntington, of the Nat. Bank, has kindly provided me a home, and also obtained for me a temporary situation, as Collector, for the Book and Stationery firm of French, Langran, and Ogilvie - where I am at present employed, but, hardly remunerated for my services.

Dear General. I felt deeply impressed to write you these lines, because of the earnest and interested manner in which you this morning questioned me concerning my present condition, and whereabouts. And, I would hereby, crave your personal assistance and influence, in obtaining for me something more profitable to do - at which I might be better enabled to provide my immediate wants.

May, prosperity and advancement ever attend your every undertaking: is the sincere wish of - your humble servant

Sydney Marlowt.

Dear cousins ^{and} this Lizzie although I believe you are indebted to me for letters: still as my cares are not quite as numerous as yours I will not be very particular.

I will tell you at once the object of my writing as this is the first of at least twelve letters which ought to be written tonight. Sister Leamie expects to be married to Mr. Ankney the 15th of February and we are all anxious to see you both in R morning until Saturday night; merely spending Sundays with us. But I must close. As soon as the cards are ready we shall send them. But as circumstances have hurried the wedding considerably we feared possibly you might not receive the cards in time to come West if you wished. Remember me kindly to the children and the little stranger. Sending much love and hoping we may see you here upon the 15th of February

Ever
Dear

your aff cousin

Lizzie Thiel

P.S. Will you please forward a letter to Perry Lee Schuett to your care as we do not know where he is now.

at that time: the ceremony is to take place in church and the reception at home will be quite small.
We all like Ed very much and as it is an engagement of nearly two years standing we think we know him pretty well.
He is a young man of perhaps twenty-six years and is in the jewelry business: he is doing very well in a business point and is of a good & his family.
They expect to remain here.

Latter is in business in New Castle, a place about 40 miles from here: it is between here and Chicago: he is in the milling business and likes it very much: he is away from us from Sunday
