Major Gen. P. D. Howard.

Dear Sir - I almost shrink at my own temerity in addressing you. I tell however that in your warm and generous heart will respond a thousand tender impulses to speak my apology when I tell you it is for a brother I would speak. A brother who while he has not sacrificed life in the Commttee's cause, has sacrificed what is almost as dear - Health.

His means and the support of his family will not allow of his cessation from his that he might recuperate. His business, which is that of a mechanic is exposing at times, and many. And now sir I have been foolish enough to hope that as we spent three years of Army life you might be able to help him to a position where without exposure to inclement weather he might by honorable means regain his health and be free from anything like dependence in the support of his family.

This appeal to you is unknown to him or any save myself and you to whom it is made.

Dear Sir can you pardon me for addressing you on the subject nothing but the faint hope of helping our only brother Conradiance the Dr. such a Doctor. I will think he may find you to take notice of the most patient for you to take notice of the let it pass with others. I shall not hear of love and kind gone name, hot only for the idea of suffering but also for the provision simplicity and integrity of purpose.

Very Respectfully

From the position taken by Capt. Bryant at the organization of the Georgia Legislature yesterday, I am induced to believe his appointment as Post Master at Augusta Ga. will not be confirmed by the Senate, and that it is not improbable the President will withdraw his name and place another instead. - In which event I would be me for calling on you, its importance to me is all the expense I have to offer. Your truly,

Dear Cousin

Your very kind and welcome note of Jan'y 8<sup>d</sup> was duly rec'd this morning -

Soon after writing you, the Whisky war developed itself fully, and I found that they only desired to punish me because I was a friend of Mr Cole, and that he stood in their way -

Mr Cole has the right on his side & I have no fear but that he will triumph -

He writes me often and very satisfactorily -

Yesterday I rec'd a long letter from Aunt Martha you from Richard - It contain several items of news about the family, all of which you no doubt have heard long since -

Since I wrote you have rec'd a letter from Alban Caldecott about the property left in this State by Cousin Warren Woodbury I immediately forwarded it to his family in Miss - all well - with kind regards & all, believe me very affly

Yrs

A Martha.

Dear Sir.

In reply to your letter of the 11th inst. making inquiry concerning a note of $225<sup>00</sup> due you from me. I have to state that that note, if my recollection serves me correctly, was given for my last subscription to the Nth Congregational Church, which was subsequently paid, and not being at hand, at the time of payment has been forgotten for some two years or more. Probably you may remember the circumstances as here stated.

Very respectfully

P.S. I have $800<sup>00</sup> in church Bonds, due 31 Oct. 1867, and due five years thence, with 2 years interest paid, which I will sell for $700<sup>00</sup> in currency. Can you purchase?

Dear General

I beg to acknowledge receipt of a copy of your Report of the Battle of Gettysburg. I desire to express my obligations for the trouble you have taken. I supposed the Report had been printed and that I could get hold of it without causing any body any particular trouble.

I have read it now for the first time with a great deal of interest & settled several points about which there seems to be doubt among the authorities.

Very truly yours found very probably I think yours.

My dear General

Your letter with check for two hundred dollars in payment for balance of bill of Mantels was duly received and should have been promptly answered. It was not my intention to collect this amount and should have so informed you. I had a project in my mind in concert with Gen. Gregor which at present I regret to say we think better to postpone.

Do me the pleasure to accept of the check you sent me as a small token of my esteem for you personally and for your noble and efficient services during the Rebellion. I trust the time is not far distant when you will be rewarded by a generous people,
