JAMES REDPATH.

GEORGE L. FALL.

R-6-Vol. 1. 1870 10
Boston, February 1, 1870.

Gen. O. O. Howard

Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR:—

THE BOSTON LYCEUM BUREAU was established last Spring. During the year, it made engagements for the lecturers on its list with almost every Lyceum in New England, and with the leading Lyceums in the Middle States. We did not intend at first to extend its operations beyond the New-England States, but were forced to do so by the frequency of applications from every part of the country, and by the urgent requests of star Lecturers who desire us this year to manage their entire business. Henceforward, therefore, we shall work in the Middle and Western States as well as in the East and the British North-American Provinces.

We can confidently refer to all the Committees and Secretaries with whom we have made engagements, as witnesses that we have promptly, courteously, and in a satisfactory manner conducted our correspondence with them. Even without the addition of a single new name to our list of Lecturers, or of a single Lyceum to our list of correspondents, we know that our business during the coming year would be largely in excess of our transactions since last Spring.

That we have been equally fortunate in satisfying the Lecturers for whom we have acted, is shown by the fact that no name that was given to us has been voluntarily withdrawn from our list.

Our experience has taught us some lessons which we shall apply in our future business.

First, we shall not retain on our list the names of any Lecturers who, having had favorable opportunities, have failed to satisfy the just expectations of Lyceum audiences.

Second, We shall not insert on our list the name of any Lecturer unless we have the absolute and sole control of his engagements, either (1) for all of New England and the Provinces; or, (2) for all New England, the Provinces, and the Middle States; or, (3) for the entire country. By the Middle States we mean New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

It is impossible to fix engagements and answer correspondence promptly, when we have first to write to lecturers to find out their dates. It does not pay us, it does not pay the Lecturer, and it does bother both. For, during the engagement season, the applications, both by mail and in person, are so numerous and importunate that we are necessarily compelled in most cases to supply the best Lecturer whose whole time we control, because we have neither the leisure nor opportunity, even if we had the inclination, to open negotiations with others whose names would have been equally or even more satisfactory. No lecturer who put his entire time in our hands has any desire now to resume his own business, and we have assurances from large numbers of Lyceums that they will make up their entire courses from our list next year.

Our commission is ten per cent of the fee received by the Lecturer,—neither more nor less. We have refused, and shall refuse, all offers to accept either a larger commission, or bounty, as an inducement to push aspiring candidates, or a smaller commission in order to secure the more desirable names.

Our commission is paid by the Lecturer, and not the Lyceum. The entire business of collecting the fees remains in the hands of the Lecturer.

If you desire to add your name to our list for the coming year, we shall be happy to hear from you at an early date, as we shall begin at once to open correspondence, for the coming season, with all the Lyceums in the country.

Address—

Dear Sir:

I am glad that you found my Old and New article in the issue satisfactory. My comments were on the recommendation in your annual report. At the time I wrote I had neither seen nor heard of this letter to the Secretary of War - in which, if you will allow me to say so, the ideas advanced are far different from those put forward in the report of a month previous.

Very truly yours,

Major Gen.^l

O. O. Howard

Dear Sir,

I appeal to the generosity of your heart and beg your pardon for the liberty I take in asking an act of kindness at your hands. - ^{beginning}

At the ~~beginning~~ of the war I was worth $300,000. I am, by the result of the war reduced to poverty. In 1867, I got together the odds & ends of what I had left - & left North Carolina & came out to the South West, to try to recuperate my fortunes by raising cotton. It turned out that 1867, was the most disastrous to the cotton-growing interest that ever was known. Floods in the Spring, unprece-dented drought in the Summer, & the Caterpillars in the Fall destroyed the crop, & for what little cotton I made I got only 12 cents a pound. I lost all. And now at my time of life with ruined fortune, broken health, & a crushed heart, I am thrown on my own resources, to take care of a dependant family. To go back to the practice of the law, presents a gloomy prospect at my time of life, & in a comparatively strange land.

I have concluded to ask of Gov. J. A. Alcorn the govern elect of Mississippi, the appointment of Judge of the Circuit Court. It is necessary to my success, that I should be strengthened & sustained in my application, by the recommendation of some few prominent men of an enlarged national reputation who know something of me and of my antecedents. I know of no one whose kind interposition in my behalf would go further than your own. - And therefore it is I say to you, that if you can, consistently with your views & feelings, give me a kind letter 127 to Gov. Alcorn, such as you may feel disposed to write. I and mine will ever regard it as an act of kindness, for which we will be grateful - and more than grateful. -

I am the victim of misfortune, General. I have ever been a strictly sober man. I never gambled & really don't know how to gamble. I have never been an extravagant man, & have not wasted my substance in riotous living. - I have tried to conform to the precepts of that Christian faith, at whose altar I have, for years, received the holy communion. - I have the conscientious consolation, of never having knowingly moved any man to the extent of a dollar lottery but my faith in the mercy & promises of Almighty goodness, has sustained me under the heavy load of affliction, that weighs me down. -

As to my political status (and it is right I should allude to it) for 20 years, I fought the battles of the Union, against secession & the hope, till it was too late, that public opinion, in both sections, would enforce an amicable solution of the difficulty.

I foresaw & predicted the result, if our people persisted in the war. But reason was dethroned - a reign of terror prevailed - and all I could do, was with a sad & heavy heart, to await the dread consequences, of the folly & madness of the Southern people. - I have taken no active part in politics since the war. I have not concurred in the persistent and organized resistance of the Southern people to the government & its administrative policy. They should not have expected, to be allowed to quietly & evenly glide back into their original status in the Union, without paying the penalty of their misdeeds. - Revolution must run their course & bear their legitimate fruits. Such has been the history of the past - such it will ever be. What trying scenes, has our country passed through — since that day, when you graduated at West Point — when I was called on to admonish you of the duties which awaited you. — You were then a youth — I was in the flush of manhood. I then had fortune & position — you had your fortune to make. — You have reached fame & honor — I in the decline of life have lost fortune — and all my country scourged with fire and sword. — Thank God, my integrity and my honor are left me. I ask the kind favor of such an endorsement at your hands, as will enable me to obtain subsistence for my wife & children. —

I think the prospect of the South is brightening slowly. Gov. Alcorn is an able man, of patriotic and rational views. The new Constitution is not proscription, & is in the main, unobjectionable. — Such letter as you may feel willing to write to Gov.
J. A. Alcorn in my behalf, you will please enclose to me at "Nesbitt's Station — Desoto Co. — Mississippi." — I know Gov. Alcorn, & I know that he 129 is kindly disposed to me — but in these times, the appointing power prefers to be sustained by the endorsement of those possessing commanding influence & reputation. —

Will you be so kind, Gen— eral, as to address the enclosed letter to ^{Major #} Gen. Schofield, & have it forwarded to him. — I would not trouble you with it, but I do not know his present location. —

I hope you will pardon me for requesting your aid, as I have done in this letter. It is painful to me to do so — but necessity drives me to it. —

Yours most respectfully H. Rayner

almost daily making the inquiry. How soon will payment be made. I presume that many are of the opinion that the fault lies in my office. The Messrs Harris in charge of the school at Fayetteville who have rendered valuable assistance in organizing schools state to me that some six schools were suspended near them during the month of January, the rentals being in arrears. The order separating ~~the~~ District of Mo. Ca. ^{did not reach me} until the 15th of November I found it difficult to make the teachers understand the change and cause the reports to be made I therefore had returned and forwarded vouchers for both months at the same time. Can you not if the check is not found when this is received provide the amount of it ($675.-) that I may make immediate payment to teachers, When found the funds can be returned. I hope, you will do it if possible. Truly yours L. E. Rice
