Dear Sir:

Judge Bartley informed me to day that Mrs Belt had got her papers out of your possession. I hope that you retained those letters (or copies of them), which she wrote you derogatory of my personal character. If you recollect I stated that I desired you to do so. If such is the case I hope you retain in your memory the contents as they will go far to show to what means she would resort to damage private character.

Very respectfully, your Obh. Servt.

My dear General I thank you for Your good letter of 18th May. I showed it to A.P.K. and would write fully in answer if I could, but it would be too long. Will you go to Hampton June 6th? I hope so.
Mr Whipple is to be there and I hope to be, and we can have a chance to talk about the bank, whose next meeting comes next day, the 8th - i. e. next day after the Hampton day, the 7th Jun, we going down on the 6th. I have much to say about the bank - and can talk it far more easily than I can write.

We are grieved to see Mr Colfax Stephen Dorron: May he be restored!
A.P.K. will see in these days of course, there in Washington.

Yours most truly

Dear Sir,

The new school building for Lincoln Institute is to be dedicated July 4th. It is a part of the programme for me to make a short historical statement. Of course I must allude prominently to the aid received from the Freedmens Bureau.
Besides narrating the help you gave, I think of making substantially the following statement, if it meets your approval: and I write to you to know if it does, and in case it does if there are any corrections you would like to see made.

"Let me clearly state an important point connected with the Freedmen's Bureau, that is quite generally misunderstood. It is thought that the funds of that Bureau were in some way a tax on the general revenues of the government: that Missouri and Massachusetts helped, directly or indirectly, to raise that money.

That is a mistake. When, in the first years of the war, the colored people of Virginia & Maryland flocked into Washington, the Quartermaster's department set immense numbers of them at work, to preserve them from idleness and starvation. At one time, not less than 20,000 were thus employed. Most of these men were separated from their families: all had recently emerged from a condition of enforced labor, and of dependence upon the care of others for the supply of their daily wants. Then Edwin M. Stanton issued an order retaining 10 per cent of the wages of the contrabands for the benefit of their families. How many women and children were saved from suffering by this wise foresight of the war secretary may never be known. But this followed one unforeseen result. In the vicissitudes of war times, there happened to be a large residuum of this fund that was never called for.

Congress reasoning justly that this was the product of the labor of colored men, and did not belong to the government at all, and, though the individual owners could not be found, must be used for the benefit of the colored people—turned it over to the Freedmen's Bureau to be used for educational purposes. And, considering that the money had been earned in Washington, Gen. Howard did well to appropriate a

Gen O. D. Howard

Dear Sir

As I have been assured through friends that you will keep my case before your mind, and as this seems to be a propitious time, I take the liberty of drawing your attention to the fact, of there having been some thirty clerks removed from office in the Interior Dept. with a view (as I am credibly informed) of putting in others.

The thought occurred to me that a word from you in my behalf just at this time, when these changes are being made, would have great weight with the Secretary.

My kind friend Mr. Grey, tells me, that it is all important that my application which is now before Mr. Delano, should be followed up by some strong influence, which induces me to apply to you, feeling assured that your kind christian heart will pardon me, when I tell you, that my present pressing necessities, & great anxiety on the subject, is my only plea for thus again trou-bling you -

"Thee Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust -"

I am Sir in all sincerity
