My dear General,

It gave me much pleasure on my return from the Country to receive your engraved portrait. I am very much obliged to you for it - I often think of the pleasant trip we had to Gettysburg for the interest & pleasure of which we were so largely indebted to you. Trusting

Dear General-

Permit me to call your attention to the enclosed letter which expresses in a crude manner my views of Mr. M<sup>c</sup> Lellan.

You can hardly imagine how much interest the people of the 2nd School District feel in this matter. It is only now & then you find a man disaffected toward Mr. Lellan, & if you trace it up you will find that it grows out of enforcement of the rules of the board against bad scholars - I pray you to get him reappointed.

Gen. O. O. Howard. Truly Yours, Robt. W. Fenwick

Dear Sir,

July 14th 1871

As we have at times been requested to explain why our Patent Agency will not procure Patents on the principle of "no patent, no pay" - It gives us pleasure to be able to refer to an official explanation from the Patent office itself, we presume such explanation a full vindication of the Cash ~~book~~ system, which among others has uniformly been adhered to by us (see next page) Thos. Stoddard
 Mason, Fenwick & Lawrence

Extract from the Annual Report of the COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS for the year 1869.

Where establishments are organized for the purpose of procuring patents, they are apt to become more solicitous about the number than the quality of those which they obtain. This tendency is aggravated by those who solicit patents upon contingent fees, or who, without special training or qualifications, adopt this business as an incident to a claim agency, and press for patents as they press for back pay and pensions. Such men are often more desirous of obtaining a patent of any kind and by any means than they are of obtaining one which shall be of any value to their clients. Inventors are often poor, uneducated, and lacking in legal knowledge. They desire a cheap solicitor, and do not know how to choose a good one. They are pleased with the parchment and the seal, and are not themselves able to judge of the scope or value of the grant. Honest and skillful solicitors, with a thorough knowledge of the practice of the office and of patent law, and who are able and willing to advise their clients as to the exact value of the patents which they can obtain for them, may be of much service to inventors. There are many such, but those who care for nothing but to give them something called a patent, that they may secure their own fee, have in too many instances proved a curse. To get rid of their client and of trouble, they have sometimes been content to take less than he was entitled to, while in many cases they have, with much self laudation, presented him with the shadow, when the substance was beyond his reach. Between such men and the office the strife is constant. They have the ear of their client, and, to some extent, of the public, and much of the misrepresentation of the spirit and character of the work of the office is directly traceable to this source.

RECEIVED
JUL 20 1871 (Copy in substance of a letter left with petitioners &c)

Washington July 1871
Hon. Henry D. Cooke
Governor of the District of Columbia

Sir: We address you the more confidently in respect to the accompanying petitions, since the message of your excellency was largely devoted to the interest of our public school system, and for which every true parent and friend of education in our District felt deep gratitude. You manifested an interest both for the mind and body - by proposing to provide capable teachers and comfortable schoolrooms both of which - together with faithful and competent Trustees - are necessary for the advancement of <sup>the</sup> youth of the present day; And Sir; in this connection we would say that we look <sup>upon</sup> the man who takes such a lively interest in the cause of education as a benefactor of his race. And we feel most happy Governor, <sup>to keep out</sup> that the appeal we shall make today in the name of the people of Washington for the appointment of the very worthy citizen named in the petitions, ~~to be~~ ~~that~~ it comes to one who knows the wants of our Public Schools.

That you do know we have only to read that part of your message relating to public schools to find it out, and more, that your heart is deeply enlisted in the cause of popular education.

Governor - we understand that the appeal of <sup>over</sup> one thousand boys and girls from the 2nd school District has come up to you urging the appointment of the same person that we seek to have appointed school Trustee - that numerous petitions signed by teachers and friends of the <sup>schools of</sup> said district have also been presented, and it may appear like importunity for us to do anything more - but we will venture - as it may be that names, and persons for whom you have a high regard, are on these petitions, which together with the others will lead you to more confidently do what you may already have determined to do; or were almost persuaded you should do. In these petitions you have specially the parents, of the children who attend the 2nd district schools, and generally, friends and guardians of school children. Among the many respectable friends of education who have signed these petitions you will find William R.

Woodward, President of the Board of Trustees, and Dr. George W. Samson - President of Columbian College - names that the children and fathers of Washington hold sacred - Their works in the direction of education being known and read of all men. You also will notice the names of many of our best, and most influential private citizens - as well as our Territorial Legislators. This petition is truly the voice of the people - which, under our government being regarded as the basis of all action, may we not Governor look upon you as that man who, desiring to serve the will of the people, will gladly acquiesce in their will as expressed in these petitions? We believe we may answer in the affirmative for you.

The man for whose appointment we seek, by request of citizens, is well and favorably known, and the writer together with other conservative members of the board of Aldermen voted in joint convention some years ago for his appointment as a Trustee of public schools, not because he was a known republican but because he was regarded then, as now, the most suitable man for that position to be found in our City.

Sir, our regard for the cause of education among all classes and conditions - conducted under a plan which would secure the greatest benefit to all - with harmony and happiness - without faring and discordancy, was so great that we cast aside all party distinctions and voted for George Fred<sup>d</sup>.

Mr. Lellan. - None regret the act - and Governor we trust you will do the same in respect to the same individual.
Three years have rolled by since that time and today it is almost the universal sentiment among right minded people who know whereof they are judging that our public school system has been advanced amazingly through the aid rendered and the sacrifices made by Mr. Mc Lellan. Need we tell you anything about this man's work, no for you know him and his labors. He is a devotee to the cause of public education. You doubtless have read his Report on public schools, and in it you have found a statement of what a Trustee's labors are.
In that report you have shadowing of the man we are talking to you about.

But if you would know the man by his works go to the public schools of the second District on examination days and witness his tact and ability for the position of Trustee, and at the same time feast your eyes with the sights which have made our hearts glad the present year. G

Governor, Mr. Mc Lellan is a man of very high attainments and culture, and his governors are, order, energy, and honesty. We admit you have shown wisdom and discretion in your appointment, temporarily, to successor who is his peer, and the only questions which arise, are, 1st Can this gentlemen spare the time, and will he make the sacrifices that are demanded of him to perform the work Mr. Lellan performed. 2nd. Does not gratitude to the man require that we show an appreciation of his labors of the past by re-

Ms. A. 9. 2. 1871

appointing him a Trustee? Except a few who may not see any use, or virtue in rules which produce order out of chaos, all fathers and mothers, of right thinking, will and do thank this man for the good he has done their children by enforcing stringent but just rules and regulations. The writer, <sup>who</sup> has two boys in these schools - so also ~~has~~ his friend Frank H. Stickney - brother of William ~~the~~ president, of the Council and a thousand or two more who have children in these schools, all <sup>will</sup> tell you that the services of this man, if rendered as heretofore, ought not to be lightly thought of or dispensed with, but on the contrary every effort to secure them should be made & indeed, <sup>this</sup> is the case - the people being awake to their interests.

Governor - The man we speak of has ever been a friend of education, for white and colored people.

We know that his record as a christian worker at Freedmen's village, Arlington, on Sabbath is a creditable one and will not soon be forgotten by those he <sup>has</sup> benefitted. But pardon us for detaining you so long, and we will conclude by saying that politics in this matter should not be thought of. We appeal simply on the ground of righteousness and justice.

The circumstance is this - a faithful worker <sup>without pay</sup> in the cause of education ~~with pay~~ has been dropped from the board of Trustees of public schools and the people request you to reappoint him. Do so, and you will have still more of our, and the people's regard, and we all shall feel still more confident that you love that which is dear to our hearts and interests - The education of the masses.

Very Truly Yours,
Robt. W. Fenwick

Dear Sir:

I desire very much to publish in the next number of the "Congregational Monthly", a brief article in reference to the history, success, purposes & prospects of "Howard University" with cuts of the buildings.

I have a very friendly feeling for the University & for its founder, and believe that such a notice of your laudable enterprise would do it good. I should be pleased to have you prepare the article, or have it done, & send in matter at once. Cuts can be returned if desired.

I desire especially to publish such an article next month, & our arrange-

O. O. Howard, Washington, D. C., July 19th, 1871
My Dear General -

Inclosed I send you three notes - I desire you to place them in the Freedmen's Bank or keep them in your possession and if paid, consider the proceeds a contribution to the "Church Fund."

Mr. Stewart was a soldier, had a place in Navy Yard - Lost it - His family was sick, utterly destitute and I had to help him live.
I took his note for the amount of money and groceries he need. from me or on my order. He is honest, good man, has now recovered his place in Navy Yard and will eventually get on his financial legs.

The other notes will undoubtedly be paid. Mrs Pollard had no reasons of gaining redress for her wrongs, at the hands of you and I lent her these sums. Judgement rendered in her favor in one case $532. The other three cases I think she will win.

I have informed both these parties that I have sent you the notes - It will not be necessary for you to look after them - I go away for the summer and that is why I leave them. As I considered them sort of loans to Providence in aid of the needy, I now give them to the Church. I would also say that owing to some large investments in Real estate for a speculation, which I find "hanging fire" I shall delay my regular subscription of $100 - a short time - but will renish it as it has nothing to do with these "note" gift.

My Dear Gen. Howard:

You military men, before cutting loose from the walks of civilization, used to write parting words to your distant relatives. I am not about to embark from Atlanta to the sea. But, to-morrow morning, early, I am to start with my brother for the Taraxac Lake, to be absent from civilized people, about ten days. I have preached a half day for Rev. Mr. Butler, my brother in law, pastored here, & am sitting in my room, writing on a book in my lap. My inkstand met with a disaster, & so I have only my pencil, with which to write.

Have a touch of rheumatism in my shoulder, which reminds me of the way you used to suffer. The weather is very cold up here, & I got chilled yesterday, coming from St. Albans. Mrs. Rankin & Emma remained there. though Mrs. P. seems to suffer as much from the cold, as she did from heat in the South. It has been very rainy for the week we have been this way.

In the death of Hon. Laurence Drayton - Lord of St. Albans, who died without making a will, the freedmen lost a warm friend. He was heard repeatedly to say, that he should not leave the bulk of his money to his children, but to the freedmen. But, his children have it, & the freedmen stand a poor chance of getting any of it. Could I have seen him, before his death, I think I could have persuaded him to do something through our University: but now it seems too late: though the children ought to be willing to do something for the memory of their father, as well as to carry out his known wishes.

I have seen by the papers, that you & Frank have met with some success in efforts for the Y. M. C.
A. I rejoice in it. You have my full sympathy, & I should like to help you, if I could.

Please give me a kind re-membrance to Mrs. Howard & all on the hill; especially, Bro. Nichols.
It seems rather lonely business to go away from lines of communication with home & home friends, even for a week or ten days. But, God is near all whom we love, & can keep us from all evil. I shall be most glad to be again in my place in It., though my trouble with my voice seems to be about the same.

Very truly Yrs.

Mr Peere thinks that if he shall be called to this position, he will need for his support, a salary of $2150.<sup>xx</sup> per annum. Of this sum the Am. But it is not entirely to my mind as a permanent location, I prefer a place where my work can be more widely felt, - some larger Superintendency, or some Normal School or College. I am now out, as often as my time permits, conducting Teachers' Institutes, for which the State pays me $50 for risk & expenses.

I have health & power of persistent work, as you may infer from what I name above, & that, besides, I read occasionally (holding lecture as Cong. preacher) & manage a Cong. Sab. school.

I think my delight is in serving my master, & using my time & ability to the utmost.

I have a desire to locate in a place that may be healthful to my family, physically, intellectually & morally. I have a wife & also, 3 children under 15 years. My pay must give them competent support & afford me & them further facilities for education.

I know nothing as to the working forces in your City, Normal School or City Schools.

If you have room & may have an opening for me, I should like to see & be seen, & then decide.

Yours truly,
S. J. Tenney,

great object was to rekindle an interest in 'friends in this country.

I have to thank you for a paper with a report of an interesting speech of your own friend

Yours very truly

General O. O. Howard,
Dear Sir

Letters,

from yourself and Secretary Whipple, announce my election to a Professorship in the Theol.
Department of Howard University.
Thanking you, heartily, for the appointment, I cheerfully accept it.

I am deeply conscious of the responsibilities of the position.
A man might well shrink from assuming them. But my willingness comes, I trust, of the thought that they are not assumed, but laid upon me by Him who is able to "strengthen with all might" I resigned my pastorate yesterday and, as soon as released, shall be ready to set my hands to the work which already has my heart.

I see no possible way of coming to Washington to attend to the very important preliminaries you mention, before about the 8th of Aug., tomorrow week.

As President I know you will do whatever you think best and your already overtaxed time will allow before then.

I regret to write so hurriedly on a matter of so much importance - but an engagement of long standing, to go out of the city this morning, compels.

J. B. Keane

Gen. C. C. Howard

President of the University
