Sir

I was told that you had some houses for sale out at the university so I went out to see them on last Sunday and I liked them very much but my wife did not want to go the other side of the university so if you have any on this side I am not wondering I think we can make trade Please let me hear from you at your earliest opportunity I mean any houses like the one that river Daley bought of you or the houses that is on the hill beyond the university Please let me hear from you at once

O. O. H.

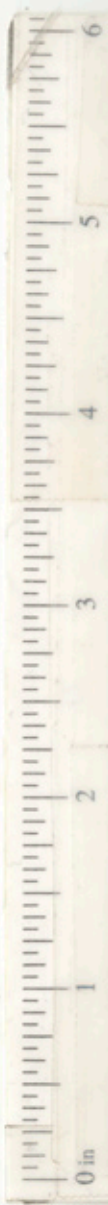

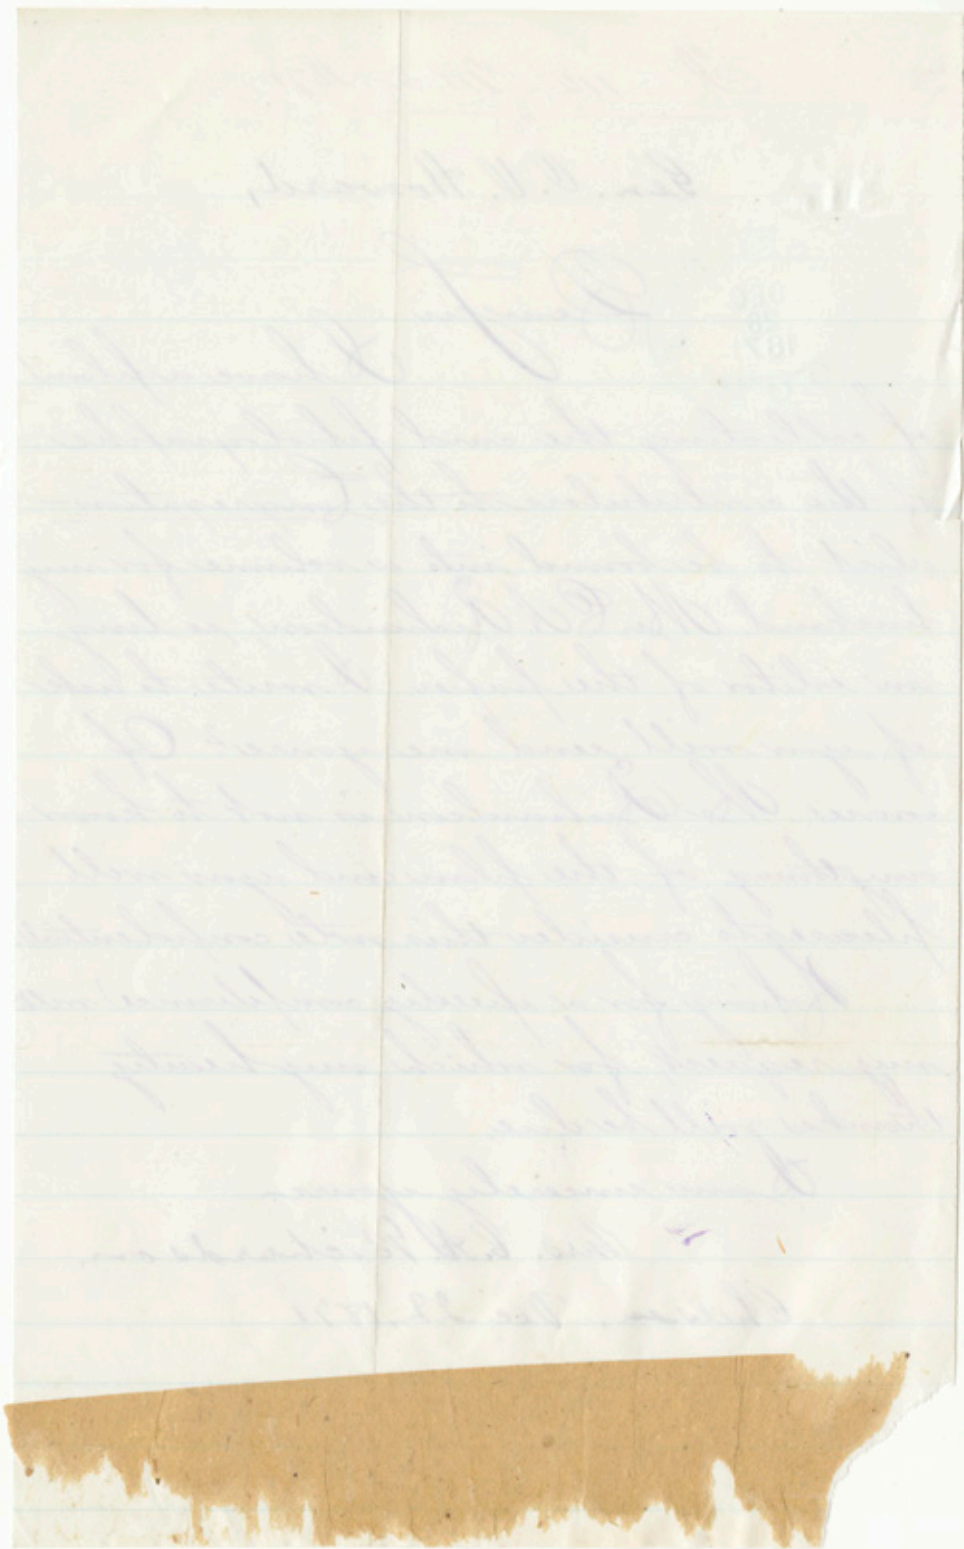

I have a plan of collecting the card photographs of the contributors to the Congregationalist to be bound into a volume for my husband, Mr. C. H. Richardson, so long an editor of the paper. I write to ask if you will send me yours? Of course Mr. Richardson is not to know anything of the plan and you will please to consider this note confidential.

Hoping for a speedy compliance with my request, for which my hearty thanks will be due,

I am sincerely yours,

Mrs. C. H. Richardson,

My Dear Gen^l

 Mrs Simpson
whom you, with all of us, know to be a very worthy woman, ever ready to do all in her power for the good of others is working hard to maintain her son Thomas aged 18 at the Howard University. I understand that, sometimes, boys at the University are able to get some appointment as messengers or like place in Washington, the duties of which they can perform without serious incumbrance to their studies, and thus see much in their own support.

Thomas is a bright and steady boy who would prove himself well worthy of such a place. Can you consistently with your duties do any thing to put him in the way of thus helping himself? If so you will have the lasting gratitude of his mother and the thanks of your friend.

Truly Yours

General O. O. Howard

President of the Howard University Washington D.C.

Dear General:

Permit me to remind you of the promise you were so kind as to give me of a col-logue of the Freedmen Schools at the South together with the names of the Principals as far as known to you. I desire to send at present a copy of my little book to each of them for examination and intend also to go to each of them as I am able to visit in the future -

You will please address me at Des Moines Iowa {Care of the Governor} and I herewith enclose a letter of introduction to yourself from my friend Governor Austin which should have come to hand before you left Mankato. Also a St. Paul Press containing approvals of leading teachers through the North in favor of my method which in my judgment will be found peculiarly useful at the South also where vicious habits of Spells are more common than with us - at the north.

My hope is to make myself useful in teaching to the adult Black population in their Churches and school houses and in teaching reading among them - to which my little book is auxiliary and I am also designing a little primary reader on much the same principle as my little speller which will I think be a great help in introducing that people as well as our own to a better way of learning to read - doing a sure thorough work in less time - The generous reception which the best instructors have accorded me as ^{and value} corroborates my own clear conviction of the importance of my method - If you deem my proposed method of serving the cause of education among the Blacks worthy your approval I should be glad of such encouragement from you as is consistent with your position and views of duty - A letter from you introducing me to such teachers and friends of the Black Man as would help me in carrying forward my design would be grateful for and should I trust show myself not unworthy of your courtesy and confidence -

Should you upon examination find my little work worthy I should be glad to add your commendation to those it has already won from those who have examined it and passed judgment on its merits as an introduction to the proprieties of the English tongue -

Washington Dec. 25th 1871

Gen O. O. Howard
Pres. H. University
University Hill.

Dear Sir:

You will perhaps recollect that during last Summer my young son Wm. M. Lynch had several interviews with you relative to devising some practical way for him to enter college and pursue a course of studies necessary to qualify him for the profession of Medicine - a profession on which he has set his heart - Not being able myself to furnish him any pecuniary aid he was desirous of obtaining a position in the Interior Department, and accordingly procured a favorable letter from Comptroller Taylor to Secretary Delano. He filed his Application & letters in that Department, but did not get to see Delano personally, and had no influential friend to make a proper presentation of his case; and at the time he left the City nothing further had been done for him. I have little or no expectation that he could now get into any of the Departments.

About the time William was conferring with you he received an offer of employment in the Adams Ho. Express office at Ft. Wayne. This offer was made by telegram which did not give the kind of duties he would have to perform, nor the amount of compensation; but it specified that if he accepted, he must go at once. With much haste he got ready and started to Ft. Wayne - When he got there he found that his compensation would be $45 per Mo. and his duties to assist at receiving and shipping at the cars all express matter arriving and sent away at the hours of eleven P.M. and at one, three and five o'clock A.M. thus necessarily requiring him to be up nearly all of every night. He was also required to yield two hours additional service every afternoon upon the books in the office.

He has continued to perform all this service until the present time to the entire satisfaction of the Express Agent, as I am informed by the Agent himself. But William writes me that the labor in transferring the goods from and into the cars, is too great for his limited strength, having several times injured himself by over exertion, and that he cannot endure it longer. He has but one other person to help him and very often there are large boxes and other single articles weighing over 600 pounds to be moved and lifted up.

He has tried to get other employment there but without success. He now asks me to provide some way for him to go to school, or enter college.

I am in much perplexity about the matter. My circumstances are unfavorable to giving him pecuniary aid. I entered the Treasury Depart as clerk in the 1st Comptroller's office July 1st 1870. My salary is small, and, unfortunately I am very much in debt on account of failure in a small mercantile business, in which I was engaged before I came to Washington. I was entirely broken up - lost all my effects and am yet owing about $1000 of debts growing out of my adventure. Since I came here I have been paying off my liabilities as fast as I could, I feel in honor and conscience bound to pay all, if my life is spared. Receiving but $1400 salary, I yet adopt such a mode of living, that I can now set apart from $50 to $75 monthly out of my small salary towards paying my debts.

I have been deaf for 25 years, and now past 60 years of age. All these things considered, you will see that I am poorly able to do much towards helping my boy at school. Indeed he would gladly work for himself if he could get such employment here as he has the strength and skill to make himself useful.

I ask your favorable consideration of this matter, and whatever suggestions you are pleased to make shall be thankfully received.

Soon after my son left for Ft. Wayne I rec'd a letter from an old friend Judge P. B. Swing of Ohio. This letter was designed to be used in the interest of my son, but he having left, I have hitherto withheld it as being unavailable. I hand it to you herewith.

I am yours

With great Respect

Osace Lynch
