Dear Sir:

Please show Mr. J. Sumner your instructions - Also read and deliver to him the enclosed letter for him. I think I have substantially complied with Cochise's request as to limits of Reservation. I will let the President - what he wishes as to the troops and the Gila extension and get the best terms I can of course I shall be apprehensive of trouble here but he preferred this to Canada with all his chances.

The danger of a breach of "our peace" will be less with Maj Sumner here than if all the troops should be removed.

Dear Sir:

I have to thank you very sincerely for all your kindness. I have kept the escort longer than I expected when I left your post but my movements in the Mts have been so uncertain that I have been obliged to send my Ambulance from point to point, and delay the return of the public property, which belonged at Bayard and Leraig. Capt Gladen has written your Dr. Mr. concerning the property which I send back to your post. Will you do me the further favor to send a small Escort a non commissioned officer with the public property which I send back to Leraig. And approve the request my Aide makes to your Dr. Mr. for rations and forage orders for Streeter and the animals from your post to Leraig.

Dear Major

After much reflection and with the strong hope of gathering in all the Apaches who have infected this Southern Country now off Reservations I have set apart the Reservation as described. The greater portion of the land is of no use whatever except to hunt over, and the mts afford the Mesquite, the Springs and grazing the Indians need. My dear Howard,

I enclose this letter just as it comes me, so that you can see precisely what the proposition is, without any restatement of mine. Remembering yr. mathematical attainments in College & the reputation you acquired as a teacher at West Point, I fancy this kind of work will be very much to your taste. Whether in the multiplicity of yr. larger engagements you could spare any of yr. leisure for this kind of employment is of course another question.
I trust the country has a good deal for you to do - not only this administration, but for many years beyond. Still this might prove a agreeable pursuit for yr. leisure hours - if you ever have any.

Kennedy graduated here in the class of '69 - with honorable rank. He was a gold fellow - thorough, conscientious, & pains-taking. I have no doubt he will do well in these text books. If you feel inclined to go into this, I think you will not be disappointed in him. I will send him a note of introduction to you by some mail with this.
With kind regards to yr. family, I remain, dear friend, the Wellthier, - J. A. Kennedy

The Principal Publishing House of this city - that of Martin Taylor, has invited me to prepare a series of mathematical text books.

I confess my irrability to prepare, for the present at least,
more than the elementary part of the series - Arithmetic, Geometry, and Elementary Algebra, and we wish to secure the services of some Mathematician to examine the manuscript or proofs and make or suggest changes, if the proof or manuscript does not meet his views, and compile, at his own com-series, the higher works, but have the whole appear in his name.

It seems to me Gen. C. C. Howard is the man to do this and you the one to aid me in presenting this subject to him for consideration.

The introduction of the series, as soon as published, into the Public Schools of the ^{city} and Detroit, Michigan, is already positively secured, while arrangements have been made to have them published in N.Y. City, and Boston, and the prestige of Gen. Howard's name would greatly influence their introduction in the New England States, and throughout the South. The fact of their introduction in two large cities, ~~would~~ ^{would} warrant me, I think, in saying the enterprise would prove largely remuneration at once; and I am assured by Mr. Taylor that a large royalty would be allowed Gen. Howard for the use of his name.

If you can consistently, from what you know of me

In reply to yours of the 18th inst - dated at Maricopa Wells, permit me to state, that I am surprised at the attempt - made by some informer to destroy the friendly relations existing between you and myself.

I will refer your letter to Gen. Crook, and am convinced the General will join me in pronouncing the assertion of any attempt on my part - to endanger your friendly relations with him, a base falsehood.

My co-operation with you at all times, should be ample proof to convince you, that any charges of my being "secretly inimical", were conveyed to you by some person or persons, antagonistic to

THE REDSKINS.

GENERAL HOWARD INDORSES GENERAL CROOK'S WAR POLICY—HOW COCHISE IS FORTIFIED—HE FAVORS THE REMOVAL OF DISHONEST INDIAN AGENTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—General Howard (recently returned from Arizona) says his acts were strictly in accordance with the instructions to General Crook, and he indorses his policy and plan of vigorous war against hostile Indians. He states, also, that he never gave General Crook orders to suspend hostilities while he was in power, but while the Apaches were negotiating with Cochise he requested the troops in Camp Crittenden not to fire on the Indians.

Great sickness was prevalent among the troops, and more soldiers were required. He found the most desperate and dreaded chief, Cochise, occupying a stronghold in a fastness of the Territory, accessible only by a series of narrow passes, seven miles long. Approach by the soldiers was impossible, as the place was a natural fortification, which could be held by two hundred against five thousand. This and similar fortresses are in the Dragoon mountains.

Cochise has twelve captains and 500 men under his control. Ten of the captains consent to go to the Canada, while two are willing to make terms of peace on condition of having a reservation there. General Howard has concluded to try them, provided they deliver up all the property taken by the Indians. General Howard favors the removal of many of the Indian agents. He says that when agents pay $1,500 for a position the salary of which is only $1,500 there is something wrong, and a reform is necessary. General Howard highly compliments General Crook.

Of course such statements have weight only with unthinking people who do not understand the present system of appointments, and no one who knows you can believe for a moment that you made them
