Dear General - I never had a better rest in 'em at night. Got breakfast at home with the family pleasantly - all well - went up in the boat with Sheridan and Recard. the way at the Ebbett House with Gardner I. ch. - said to him - "You are about 'gone in' with your case (money) haven't you?" He said no, and expounded on that mis-placement at top p. 3. &c. But also! ^(to him) that he sh^d have no better story than that! Have been fully occupied all day with cases here, but must not go away (and all but myself and Gary (the Yonks) have been gone some time, without telling you of my arrival & of the report of Sheridan.

My Dear General,

In the Philada Inquirer of this morning I find the following "special" from Washington:

General Howard's Case.

The prosecution in the case of General Howard has closed and proved a perfect failure, nothing whatever having been found affecting General Howard's honor or integrity.

I heartily congratulate you & thank God. This is just what I anticipated, but I was afraid it would not come so soon. This, with Gen. Grant's veto, is good news enough for our neck.

Yours Sincerely
Samuel Moss.

My dear friend

The news of this morning so filled my boat with delight, (altho for sometime previous I had been confined to my Chamber of sickness) that that I had to arise and join in the general cheer of joy. I have never heard but one expression here among the people that of entire confidence in the as well as a confirmation as to the event that the violent dealing of the Envious Southern Chique, and wicked King of N-York, would come down on their own heads. Shame and Confusion of face must cover them; while if possible to make thy standing higher and light more brilliant, it will work this effect. how often the plans of the wicked fail, and what they thought would pass only dreamed.

I think now their hopes will waste away, and they will find it is not in man under the control of his animal passions to direct his steps aright.

"a good many steps are ordered of the Lord I have watched all the movements in thy Case and noted thy forbearance and Christian spirit which brings the mean-to me than ever before, which I had thought could not be. thy work is great and thou requirest aid in carrying it out but the people say it should be self sustaining but I am satisfied it cannot be I should have forwarded a small fund to thee ere this had it not been that the multiplicity of calls for great ones have consumed all my income, I am not unmindful of thy devotion to the Cause that lies at near my heart. if I could have ten thousand votes all should be given thee for our next Chief Magistrate But the But where could the man be found Capable or sufficiently capable to fill thy important station? Echo answers where? I feel more desirous now than ever to get to Washington, but my health would not warrant it at present. I have been confined to the house most of the winter. I have sympathized nearly with you and should have written you more frequently had I not believed you would have wished to answer my letters when you did not feel much heart to do, it, but now will all I trust try to be helpful and look to him above who hitherto has helped us in thy Case. "An honest man is the N. Perley to R. B. Howard Greeting,

Your's of the 20th inst. is recd, and we feel to thank you and mother for your kind regards and consolatory words in this our time of trouble and trial. No one can know only by experience what it is to pass through the furnace of affliction. Although we may reason that our near friends come down like a shock of corn fully ripe, although they are prepared and not anxious to stay, and although we may have been expecting it may come yet the blow strikes us all the same and after the stunning effects subside in my case it seems the more severe that it turns me out of doors; no more home and never care how, as I woman, I have felt sometimes since her death that life with me has been a fallow. But I do not wish if I could to try it over again for fear it would be worse, I think I have never felt more the blessedness of sury bonn again than now.

You speak of Otis I hold him to be incapable of dishonesty, but possibly some of his subordinates may have done wrong but if they have I hope that will not hurt him.

May for me my brother that I may be sustained a little longer while I am kept here

Please tell your mother that my wife never wholly ^{regained} from her sickness two years ago. The early part of this past winter she had what she called a severe cold or influenza, it lasted two or three weeks then became better. On the 4th day of March there was a light fall of snow and she started to go to Mrs. Herricks, on the way slipped and fell on the sidewalk and fractured the bones of her right wrist and a severe shock to her frame, but she appeared to be doing well for a week; but on the 11th at 9 o'clock in the evening was taken sick and had a hard night of it, in 3 or 4 days appeared better and we again had hopes, had a doctor of large experience, Pratt of Wheaton, and he said the doctor had seated itself on her bronched tubes; but he thought she might recover, but she gradually failed till Friday, March 20th 2 o'clock A.M. she breathed her last, for two hours she had suffered intensely; could not get air enough into her lungs, Her spiritual life was all right, it was remarked that she was especially devotional the latter years of her life, to the very last she retained her senses and her last words were (as I held her up in my arms that she might breathe easily) "I think I am going, the room is dark." But two of her children were at the funeral (My & Lizzie) but there was a large assemblage and many neighbors and friends followed her to the tomb all passed to our sad satisfaction, she was always honored as an honest, true

Dear Brother

Let me call your special attention to the little pamphlet enclosed, which has been published at the suggestion of the Conference in Harrisburg, Pa (Mar 11/72) to which you ^{were} ~~are~~ invited.

In the accompanying Circular an appeal is made to the Associations on behalf of their international work. But the amount absolutely needed will not be raised by this method.

I therefore appeal to you to give the subject your thoughtful attention and see if you cannot aid by your contributions during the coming Year this important work for Christ among Young Men

It will be necessary for us to know as early as June 10th what we can rely upon from individual friends of the cause in aid of the work for the year soon to begin with the adjourn-ment of the Dayton Convention (June 29th).

An early reply will there-fore greatly oblige!

Yours fraternally,

My Dear Friend

I have been watching with great interest, as you might expect, every word said in the newspapers concerning your trial and although op. have been very meagre, from all I can learn every indication is favorable to you; this result was expected by your friends, I will be much rejoiced in by all who have at heart the best interests of Christ's Kingdom.

I was very much disappointed at the course taken by your Church, or rather I should say by your pastor, and Delegate at the Conf.
Council, It certainly was very strange that the only Church representing Congregationalism at our Capital, should cast its influence on the side of disorder and disorganization, if Dr Rankin did not understand the subject in hand, he should have informed himself before casting his vote & thus the influence of your important Church in favor of Plymouth Church, and if he did understand it, he is less excusable.

Mr Beecher like every man who swerves from the right path in his teachings waxes worse & worse.
I cut an article from the Brook-lyn ^{Eagle} one of Beecher's organs, and enclose it to you, that you may see what he thinks of the Churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of all religious organizations, your Church and ours; Should a man holding such views, be shielded by the "fellowship of the Churches" Can he be, in good faith any longer?
Please show this article to Dr Rankin with my compliments, and also read him this letter if you choose, and ask him what the "Church of the Pilgrims" or Clinton Av.
Church has done to the "First Cong. Ch."

Dear Papa,

Why don't somebody write me? I haven't had a letter for two weeks, not since I came back. I heard from Guy that he had had a letter from mamma.
I've written mamma two letters, Fannie one, + Gustie one, and no answer to any. Louise wrote me that Harry was "goodnight" at the Entertainment. I wish I could have been there to see him.

A friend who has a greenhouse, has sent Annie Pope a box of flowers from Boston, not a little box but a good sized band box. Guy wrote that he could not come tomorrow night, "H. murder". Has the trial ended yet or not? The papers have said nothing since I came back I don't know but what you are still going to the court-room every day. Annie Pope just here brings me a cracker for a plate with jelly on it & a half a dozen little sweet crackers to eat with it, part of the contents of the birthday box. Is Mrs. Hunch there now, if so remember me to her. Two days ago it snowed two inches deep, this morning it was all gone but this noon at dinner, on looking out of the window, we saw that it had begun to snow again. I am sorry because it will be disagreeable for tomorrow night for the visitors. Tell Gertie to write me when she is coming to New York. We are learning to row splendidly now (in our own estimation). When you come again we will give you a boat ride. What will you do when the trial

I have in my possession a opined that any charges should be stated that you ~~would~~ invited the

My Dear Sir

Reaching my house yesterday between 3 & 4 o'clock P.M. I found your favor of the 27th with Freedman's Bank Check on the N.Y. Branch for $1020 - too late of course to present for pay^t and of no use had it come earlier, as the papers announced only $5 in one sum would be paid; as the Banking House is a long distance up town I could do nothing last evg. This morning I have been in person at 185 Bluker St. to see Mr Harris, the Presiding Officer & although he cannot pay now, he says he hopes to make arrangements with the Am. Ex. Bank during the day for funds to pay this, & some other dfts. of which he is advised, I have therefore concluded to hold the dft. until the evg mail

And then if Unpaid Will return it to You at once, I address you now by the Very first Mail, that you may take such steps as you may think proper for your own protection, Allow me to say, it would be safer for you & much less trouble for me.
When you make any remittance to purchase the Check of a good Sound Bank, in Washington or such an Institution here, In case they had honored this aft. we must send up to them 2 miles & then they do not pay, but give us their Check on some Bank down town.

It would also be well to address your business letters to me at my Office 29 South St. where I am usually from 11 to 1/2 past 2 daily.

Will write you again this P.M.

Truly yours
