I write this to extend to you our cordial invitation to speak to the soldiers in our church on Sunday, the 28th, during your stay at Dayton. I have been the commander of the Unitarian Church and it is a special time in our service.

At this time nearly 1800 disabled men of the Union and a beautiful church. I sincerely hope you will consent to come. I will see you on your arrival at Dayton.

Yours very truly,

Gen'l D. D. Howard
Washington, D.C.

My dear Gen'l:

This morning, with the payment of 100% subscription, my interest, urgent necessity for immediate return is in hand, permit me to say in reply, that the utmost economy I have been able to use, gives me but $20 surplus at this time. You will remember Gen'l, that I informed you that the only means by which I could pay 100% was by small savings from a limited salary, this means I shall continue to use, until this obligation is fully discharged. I much regret that this is the best I can do at present, I wish you success.
In all your undertakings and sincerely regret my own inability to afford material aid when solicited.

please accept these assurances of the highest regard of your friend, truly

Sir,

I received a letter bearing date June 1874 from Mr. Scolodraft in which he stated you had purchased Lot 149 in District but for $50.206 upon which I held a mortgage of $2000. The bank also sold the balance due thereon, making a total of upwards of $1200 in part due which must be attended to without delay. I have tried to see you several times but failed — Please notify me at what hour I can see you.

Yours truly,

J. D. Kitch

My dear Edw.

Precisely at 12 o'clock
noon today the enclosed dispatch reached my house and I took the liberty as it might be important to open it. I don't know where to reach you today.
And therefore mail it to reach you at home
before any business can be transacted Monday morning.

The foot improves
and I think if you had remained over Sunday
perhaps it would have been quite well. Love to you, Mr.

My dear General,

Please accept my hearty congratulations on your second delivery from the Philippines. They have made a fierce war on you, but I am rejoiced to know that you have come out of the battle unscathed.

Those who know you and appreciate your service need no congressional record to establish your innocence, but it is gratifying to have... the adme's in from all quarters, from enemies as well as friends, that the charges were false.
Mrs. Corey and I remember your visit at

APPRECIATE June 24. 1874

General O. O. Howard,

My dear Sir,

I beg at this late hour to congratulate you on the result of the late investigation. I never entertained a doubt that such would be the result of a fair and full inquiry; but your own experience of these later days has shown that malignity may accompany which it ends by such means as are always at the command of such men as Ferdinand Wood & his abettors. It is dishonoring to such men, that the highest virtue is often embarrassed & even thwarted by the persistent misrepresentations & often assaults. I rejoice most heartily that the enemies of good have been foiled down to Rome. I have no doubt you have encountered more trials in this harassing persecution than in many a battle field. It is deeply gratifying to your many friends, that such animosity, satanic I might call it, has received, I trust, a final quietus.

I am almost ashamed that I have not taken an earlier opportunity to express what I have repeatedly intended to wish to do.

Very sincerely respectfully,
yours,
A. S. Packard
