Dear Sir

My Dear Friend,

I ground her two days ago, and during the time I have spent here I have had very little time to see the Indians or any of the Society. In Laminont has been very serious at the little Church, that has been only well attended and I hope with some good results all the Officers and a great many of the Soldiers who <sup>are</sup> also most of the people of the place.

At Warrigell Mr. H. and myself visited the Indian village and had a good long talk with them. We found them very much interested and anxious to have a teacher.

This I am in hopes will soon be done, and if possible before I return. I have seen a great deal of the Warrigell Indians or more properly the Sentians and find them far above any Indians.

I have met excepting the Indians at Lomax Road. They are very anxious to work and to learn also to have their children instructed.
I will give you a full account in my report.

I think I can find plenty to do here for one month if the rain does not put in her appearance. I will try and get about cleared as best I can and see as much as possible.

The summer here this evening. And so I will say "Good By".

My dear Sir,

At the risk of being considered a meddler, I write to you in the interest (as I believe) of our Garrison. A "Sutlers Store" is being built there, and I am credibly informed that its main purpose is the vending of liquor.

My dear Sir, can not this be prevented? As it is, the poor fellows there are subject to many temptations from this town, but would it not be worse to have them at the very door of the barracks?

I am not familiar with the workings of Encampments, but it seems to me that such an establishment is full of evil to a camp.

The majority of the men are sober, but this store would give "credit"; it would be a constant and ever present temptation; the confirmed drinkers would be constantly supplied, and those who now do not drink would have greater risks to run! Could not

Our beautiful little Garrison be kept pure & free from such a troublesome, mischief making, soul destroying calamity as a rum shop would be?

I need not say more. I leave the matter with you, in confidence that you will do what may yet be done to prevent this great wrong to our soldiers and to our common humanity. I am, Sir,

With great respect,

Yours very truly

My dear Sir,

At the risk of being considered as other, I write to you in the interest (as I believe) of our cause. A letter that is busy with these, and I am highly informed that its main purpose is the sending of letters to the friends of the cause. Can not this be prevented? But if the friends are there we expect to receive contributions from new friends, and it will not be necessary to have them at the very door of the house.
I am not familiar with the workings of such movements, but it seems to me that such an establishment is well adapted to a camp the majority of the men are soldiers, but this does not give it the same character as a permanent and successful institution. The framed structure would be constantly supplied, and those who were not there would have greater rights to see. (I am not a beautiful little person. He left here a few years back and was, I think, much making, notwithstanding calamity as a man who would be. Does not say more. I leave not be true to prevent this great wrong to our soldiers and our common humanity. How far

My Dear General:

When I reached home last Tuesday, I found your letter of the 9th instant. On Thursday evening, letters of dismission were voted to Mr. Howard, Grace & yourself, as you requested. We approve the step you have taken, but, still, were very reluctant to sever the tie, which so many of us have found so close & tender. To us one, as much as you.

self & our church on its existence, & your name & your labors will always be identified with its name & its history.

During the last year, although we have dismissed more to distant churches, than ever before in the history of the church, we have added to the congregation more permanent families than ever before: & our income from all sources has been $2,000 in excess of the income of any previous year.
Still, we find ourselves heavily burdened with debt, & obliged to continue the struggle, as often called for, when you were still with us.

I have not yet seen my people together on the Lord's Day, since my return, but, I have come back very anxious as to preach to them, as to build them up in the faith, & that men may be converted to God.

We also rejoice with yourself & Mr. Howard in the kindness of your Heavenly Father toward your child son.
May God grant still greater spiritual blessings to your home & your church.

I have many things of a more personal nature, which I should like to say to you, could I see you face to face. Will you not write me sometime?

With kind remembrances to Mr. Howard & the children, as well as to all other dear members of our church, of whom you spoke in your letter. I am

Yours aff.,

General O. O. Howard,
Portland Oregon:

Dear Sir:

Your favor of June 28th. was received at the hand of Lieut. Garvey, when I was a "recruit" at Vancouver. Since then I have endeavored to profit by your kind advice & made it my business to do the best I possibly could as a soldier & I think I was moderately successful in both foot & mounted drill.

After clerking a short time in the Post Adjutants' Office, I was made Post Librarian & was performing the duties of that position when telegraphic instructions from A. G. O. ordered my discharge, and from the 25th. inst. I have been a ~~citizen~~ civilian.

I know not by what means my discharge came unless through the kind offices of my friends at Washington, to one of whom I had written a letter when I was feeling very much discouraged.

I am discharged here in a strange section & among strangers; my "final statement" showing a balance of only $5.50 due me in the two months & twenty days of my service.

I am unable to obtain employment at present, although I have spent three days in diligent search. The schools are all supplied with teachers for the Fall & Winter terms, and I am at a loss for some means of gaining a livelihood.

For the past few years I have had teaching my business but have been quite successful as an instructor especially as a Missionary of the American Missionary Association among the Freedmen, where I taught as Principal of the Columbus Union Academy in Mississippi, where your brother, Chas. H. Howard, of Chicago was District Secy for that portion of the work. I also taught in the Atlanta University, Georgia, Rev. C. A. Ware Pres., where I was in charge of the Preparatory Dept. I should enjoy remaining on this Coast & engaging in the school work, in some locality where I may be needed and where there is an inviting field for Christian labor.

I write to ask your aid in securing such a position as I desire. Anything would be acceptable, now or now, for I cannot remain unemployed. I have not the means of reaching Portland but if through your kindness the way may be open for me to obtain employment in your vicinity & secure my passage thereto I shall be more than grateful & will endeavor in some way to show my appreciation of your kindness.

I am said to be a good Disciplinarian, & can prepare youth for College. In other branches of business, I am familiar with single & double entry Bk. Keeping. Excuse this scrawl & believe me, Sir, Very sincerely, Yours Obedt. Serv.

My truly Christian friend

Your historical residence here has been sold for taxes, and I have not a dollar to redeem it. Every cent of the rent you agreed to pay, has gone into the pocket of the mortgagee Mrs. Easton. I have never made one cent toward the property. Mr. Cook, was unable to pay the remaining rent, but I managed to borrow the $550 due on the 1st of August 1875. But when I went to the Tax Collectors Office, I found to my great grief, that the place I prized so truly, for your sake, had been sold. It will take $500 to redeem it. But I have not had a dollar of my own for the last twelve months, & should have starved, had not friends in New York sent me money enough every month to pay my board. Although it was part of the agreement of the sale, for you to pay the $1800 rent, it was all and wormwood to me, <sup>very</sup> soon

To ask you for it after you left for Oregon.

God knows that money means to me, even to the blind; yet to the lame hope to the despairing ready to perish.

I know it means the same to you.

and for the reason of your Christlike brotherhood, to the human race, God took you out of the hands of your enemies here. My noble brother $350 of the said rent, Mr Cook, has not paid. If you could loan me $150 to add to it, I could redeem Eppingham Place. I am making every possible effort to sell it - indeed have been doing so for a year, but could find no purchasers. I have advertised it, every where, without success. $1650 I have had to pay in interest alone for the $11000 mortgage. Once in August 1874 again in Feb 1875, and again in August 1875.

When Major Wm Hultey went out he left an unreclaim-able drunkard, and his wife in it. They have not a cent of property, and they go off every morning, & lock up the house, so that I can show it, to no one, who wants to buy

I cannot get these people out, without violence, & my conscience resents putting them into the street, when I know no one will take them in.
He has been on a big drunk for a week. He tried to be a Claims Agent for the poor colored people, but always he never paid his office rent, he was "warned to leave." Last night, I heard he had been cheating his clients out of their pensions. But I so pity pity, pity these poor sinners, that I feel powerless about thrusting them into the street. No one knows where he is now, in his mad drunken spree please advise me what course to pur-sue, for indeed they are intollerable burden on me. When you left here Mrs McHuetey, took them to board with her. Finding the wife intol-lerable to live with, the McHuetey's moved out of your house, leaving them there. I enclose a pamphlet to show you how I have been treated myself, by others. Remember our kindly to your family, and for the love of Jesus keep me to redeem your old home. Mary Edward Schoecraft
